FIRM STAND ON GERMAN QUESTION PLEASES

PARIS, Apr. 5—The reply of the United States to Germany on the reparations question has given the greatest satisfaction to the French official circles, where it is regarded as finally closing the door to all escape by Germany from meeting her liabilities under the Treaty of Versailles.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 5—President Harding is not committed to any definite program with congress to declare a state of war with Germany is at an end. While the President voted for the Knox resolution when he was a member of the senate and spoke favorably with regard to it in an address of acceptance, he is understood to feel that there is no occasion for precipitate action at this time.

MINING NOTES

The Farley and Hall strike upon their lease on Harshell Mining company's ground looms up as big as ever and these two gentlemen will undoubtedly be remarkably well paid for their faith in this district.

Mrs. A. F. Gross of the American Boy and Deep Down properties is here from Duluth, Minn., and is to call for sealed bids upon a tunnel. He will be glad to give the particulars to any well qualified contractor who wants to bid upon the work.

Now that road work is to begin in this part of Santa Cruz county, business in nearly all lines will begin to take on new life. There will be plenty of work at good wages for all the idle men and teams in and around Patagonia and naturally this will create a more cheerful outlook for the town and adjacent country.

Last Monday April vied with March in the matter of wind, and pronounced winner by observers. The wind was followed that night and next day by showers of rain and sleet with snow in the mountains.

The Wichita Beacon heads its lead editorial in a recent issue "Called Prosperity." The editorial then sets up the fact that the foolish extravagances of the past few years have given way to real economy. The savings accounts in many cities have steadily climbed from their low ebb of the so-called prosperous years immediately following the war.

KUCHLER FIRST OFFICIAL TO ENLIGHTEN VOTERS

PHOENIX, Apr. 4—Net cash receipts for the state land department for the months of January, February and March amounted to $143,147.98. This sum of money has been turned over to the state treasurer and apportioned to the several funds entitled to it. The money is required from the following sources; in connection with the administration of state lands: Sale accounts: January $2212.74; February $36,922.38; March, $16,701.85; total, $54,837.97.

The revenue derived from the sale accounts is turned into the fund from which the land loans are drawn. About 75 per cent of the remaining revenue tabulated above goes into the permanent common schools fund.

The cash receipts reflect, in a measure, the depressed financial condition at this time. Ordinarily the receipts would be from 50 per cent to 75 per cent higher than the figures quoted above. The receipts for April are expected to be larger than those of the past three months owing to the fact that many more rentals are due in this month.

EARHART TO GO TO CHICAGO TO ARRANGE FOR FUNDS

PHOENIX, Apr. 5—Within the next week one and a half million dollars will be brought into the state and thrown into circulation. Governor Campbell, who returned this morning from a trip to the northern part of the state, spent a large part of the morning attaching his signature to 875 bonds which will bring the cold cash into the baby state. The bonds are in the denominations of $1000 $5000 and $10,000.

Raymond Earhart, state treasurer will leave for Chicago tonight and will take the bonds, signed by the governor and state auditor, Charles Fairfield, with him. Arriving at Chicago he will go immediately to the bonding house buying the bonds, and there attach his signature to them which will make them negotiable. By making the trip and signing the bonds in Chicago, the possibility of theft or loss of the bonds enroute will be avoided.

It is expected that the cash for the bonds will be at the call of banks throughout the state within a week. The funds derived thereby are, in a manner of speaking, just that amount of taxes collected from the people. Just how the money will be distributed has not been decided upon in full. It is known, however, that from these funds, the outstanding unpaid state warrants will be taken up first. This transaction is made possible by a bill passed by the recent legislature, permitting the state loan board to issue bonds in anticipation of state needs.

CATTLEMEN JUBILANT

Cattlemen in this section of the state are feeling jubilant over the rain and snow which fell here the first of the week. The grass was becoming very short on many ranges that had been overstocked during the winter, and some of the cattle were getting pretty thin, but within the next two weeks grass and weeds on the range ought to be good and all cattle will begin to take on flesh at a rapid rate. As heretofore stated in these columns cattle running on ranges that had not been overstocked have gone through the winter in splendid shape and it is not uncommon to see cattle fat enough for beef. There are two lessons learned from this long dry spell that cattlemen will no doubt profit by, one of them being that overstocking the range is hazardous, and the other one is the necessity of planting feed crops. A few acres planted to cane, sorghum, sudan grass or similar feed crops might be the means of saving many thousands of dollars worth of cattle.

Young people probably get tired of hearing so much talk about taking advantage of their opportunities. Still, the world is full of them. Did you ever stop to think that Caesar might have had an automobile and whizzed about the streets of Rome? But some one neglected the opportunity to make one. The principles upon which an automobile is built have always existed. In the years to come many things will be invented which could be invented today if someone would seize the opportunity.

Whether or not the proposed Blue Laws for our citizens on Sunday is a good thing remains to be seen, but just as these Blue Laws revert to the rigid code of our Puritan Fathers, we should like to propose Blue Laws for business. A little old-fashioned work and old-fashioned advertising would be the best thing in the world for this country. The world has been topsyturvy for the past three years—business conditions have been inverted, and the summer we settle back and make the market a buyer's market instead of a seller's market, the better it will be for the people.

Success in life does not come by having your own way every time. Yielding a little here and there smooths many a rough place. In domestic life, one finds the most perfect home where there is mutual forbearance, and in business the most successful merchant is the one who does not seek to gain every cent for himself.

In these pessimistic days of shifting markets and uncertain futures, just remember that it is always darkest just before dawn; that it is a long lane that has no turning; that every cloud has a silver lining, and a few more old proverbs of that kind. There must be truth in them or they wouldn't have lived so long.

$50,000 LOOT GARNERED BY DESPERATE BANDITS

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Apr. 4—While Postmaster L. B. Bailey of Bisbee was last night working in his office two masked bandits entered and at the point of guns forced him to open the postoffice vault. The robbers escaped with about $50,000 according to information here of which $40,000 is said to be cash. Bailey was found this morning bound and gagged having been beaten over the head. There is no clue to the bandits.

CHICAGO, Apr. 7—Indications were that the loot obtained in the mail robbery of the Dearborn street railway station late yesterday will aggregate between $500,000 and $750,000. Evidence of the loss was obtained when the police recovered a mail pouch ripped open, rifled and thrown aside which contained money wrappers showing they had been on a package of $100,000 in thousand dollar bills. Another of $40,000 in $100 bills and a third of $50,000. The pouch also contained 5 smaller sacks containing currency consigned to various federal reserve banks. The robbery was executed with great rapidity by 4 bandits. It is reported they were playing ball near the station and suddenly rushed on the mail employees, covered them with revolvers, took the loot and escaped in racing car.

Some one has said that everyone can have a flying machine—faith for one wing, imagination for the other, and courage for the propeller. A little imagination isn't a bad thing, you know. It will help over a lot of the rough places. And faith works wonders. Faith in people is pretty nearly always rewarded by finding out that they have the right stuff in them. Lack of faith is pretty sure to mean lack of happiness, for if you go about without it, you are going to find a lot of gloom.

Foreign and Domestic Pressure for League of Nations—More Elastic Rulings on Volstead Law—Trouble Over Vote in Upper Silesia—Soviet Russia Wishes to Trade in U. S.

March madness again seized Germany a few days more than one year after the troubles instigated by Doctor Kapp and General von Luettwitz in 1920.

Industrial districts of middle Germany contain the center of the disturbances which threaten the great ammonia, potash, anthracite and copper works.

Dynamite has been used extensively by the revolutionaries and various town halls and other public buildings have been damaged.

Although the loss of life has been considerable both among the government forces and the mutineers, while the latter have gained control of important areas and violence, robbery and virtual anarchy prevail in many places.

As a result of the Washington conference, and as anticipated, the packing industry strike resulted in a compromise.

The question of American participation in the League of Nations continues to bob up. Notwithstanding the pre-election platform of the Republican party.

Enforcement of prohibition under the Volstead law has been broadened by recent rulings, whacked in several places by court actions and is threatened in its entire validity by a new suit before the Supreme court at Washington.

Domestic economic considerations are involved in the fact that a return to normal conditions requires a market for American products abroad.

A big straw in the strong wind of foreign influence is seen in a recent decision of Great Britain to bring a speedy termination to the Mesopotamian problem by admitting the United States into full rights with nationals of the League of Nations in exploiting the oil resources of the Asiatic country.

New York has taken a straightforward method of dealing with the rent problem by releasing from taxation for ten years homes upon which construction shall begin before April 1, 1922.

One of those popular elections which do not decide and speedily become unpopular, may be said to characterize the plebiscite in Upper Silesia.

Barcelona Engineer Claims His Machine Will Rise Vertically From the Ground.

CAN DIP IN ANY DIRECTION

French Government Is Interested in Invention and Will Send Technical Commission to Barcelona to Witness the Trials.

London.—Paris, according to the London Daily Telegraph correspondent, is talking about a new flying machine and the romantic story of its invention.

It is called the "helicoptere," and the inventor, M. Pateras-Pescara, a Barcelona engineer, made his discovery in the Sante prison at two o'clock in the morning.

The invention consists of an axle fixed to a motor which is placed in the vehicle. The axle sets in motion sets of propellers, one set turning one way, one another. The vehicle rises vertically from the ground; it can dip in every direction, remain immobile in space, and descend like an airplane with engine stopped.

M. Pateras-Pescara, a nationalized Argentine, who married an Austrian princess, had to leave Italy when that country entered the war.

BAT THE RAT

Temple and many other towns and cities have on a hot campaign against rodents. Bell county communities have been waging war with telling effect against rats for months, and they are determined not to rest on their arms until the battle is won. Bell county communities are wise and know the destructive nature of the pest. An organized attack on them is needed in this city and section.—Abilene (Tex.) Reporter.

There have been reports of rats burrowing into the ground and taking the sprouting seed corn in the fields. There was never in Texas such a plague of rats as now. They are doing incalculable mischief and multiplying like the multiplication table. They began to be noticeably numerous three years ago, but many observers pronounced them only transient visitors, perhaps a hebra hegraira to Mexico or Missouri or somewhere. But not so. The rodents have set up housekeeping all over the cultivated portion of Texas and are raising families that would have delighted Colonel Roosevelt, had they been voters. Something will have to be done about this progressively increasing rat nuisance. The repulsive creatures are not only damaging indoor property but more outdoor property. They have destroyed fruit trees, vegetable gardens, chicken flocks and even field crops. The Patagonian has on several occasions urged the people of Arizona to unite in an organized effort to bat the rat and not allow them to accumulate in this state as they have in Texas. Let us repeat that something must be done. Why not take the matter up with the legislature?

Out of the facts of the day making up the complex called the business situation, Mr. Theodore Price singles out several that, to his practiced eye, foretell an early revival of trade and industry. The upward tendency of the stock market is one. A decline in the number of idle cars is another. An increasing output of automobiles is a third. Still another, and one of more moment, is an increase in the reserve ratio of the Federal Reserve Banks to a level that is the highest attained since June, 1919. And, to name but one other, and one less tangible, Mr. Price sees an encouraging passage in the shrinking tendency of the headlines. One will understand the theory which invests this circumstance with prophetic significance from Mr. Price's quotation of Max O'Rell's observation that "Blessed is the country that has no news." Our country supplies no news just now that moves the head-line writers into mobilizing their big type, and the fact signifies a placidity which puts us in a mood to do the work of today untroubled and undistracted by an apprehension of what tomorrow may unfold.

Do not drift. We are living in an intense age; despite the frivolity and gaiety everywhere in evidence, never was there before a time when life was regarded as such an earnest thing; never before was so much required of each individual. Are you doing your part?

The kind of a person we don't like is one who gets so used to nursing a grudge he sings and whistles to it when he lays it down.

Don't grouch around so much because business doesn't start to boom like a gold strike. Even a locomotive doesn't start off at full steam. Changes that come gradually are more often the kind that come to stay.

The Kaiser tells how the others planned and started the attack, but not how it happened that he was the only one with a gun on, as it were.

The Bonham (Tex.) grand jury wants chaperons for little girls who stay out late at night, but are at a loss to find a suitable chaperon for the chaperons.

A former newspaper man is holding revival services in Cleburne, Texas. Nobody ought to know better that broken rules lead to the hellbox.

Our guess is that if railroad rates get any higher, wedding tours will be limited to a turn around the block.

What makes a man madder than anything else is to appeal to a third party to settle an argument and be told that both are wrong.

Statement of the Ownership, Management, Circulation, Etc., Required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

Of the Santa Cruz Patagonian published Friday of each week at Patagonia, Arizona, for April 1st, 1921.

State of Arizona,
County of Santa Cruz.

Before me, a notary public in and for the state and county aforesaid, personally appeared H. R. Sisk, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the owner and publisher of the Santa Cruz Patagonian, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to wit:

CATTLE MARKET FUTURE BRIGHT SAYS STEPHENS

PHOENIX, Apr. 6.—Out at the offices of the livestock sanitary board, one imagines he can hear the secretary, Ed Stephens, humming a soft refrain with words patterned after the well known poem, rewritten as follows:
Stockman, hold that steer,
Hark not to the buyer's wail,
For in a month or thirty days,
He'll be worth a heap more kale.
Mr. Stephens has gotten hold of some "inside dope" on the beef buying industry which he declares will help the stockmen of Arizona to realize more on their beef sales. Hence the song.

Seriously, it is reported that beef buyers representing nearly all of the big packing houses on the coast—and indirectly the big packers of the country—are attempting to make a raid on the stock growing industry of the Baby State. A number of buyers have been in the Salt River valley within the past ten days trying to force the cattlemen to sell their fat steers at ridiculously low prices. In some instances they have succeeded in doing so.

Their trade chatter is a song of pessimism about the future of the beef selling game. Telling of alleged poor feed conditions throughout the west, they advise the prospective seller to "get out from under" now. To delay selling—at the buyer's figure, of course—spells ruin. Etc. Etc.

Mr. Stephens, however, has secured reliable information to the contrary of these calamity stories. "I was talking just the other day," he said, "to a man who has bought and sold in the past thirty years probably more beef than any man in the United States. He knows the game from top to bottom and backward and forward. He informs us that in such states as California, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming and Nebraska, there is an abundance of feed for the cattle. He has just come from a tour of most of these states and he knows whereof he speaks. In California they are nearly played out of fat beef. The real situation is that there is more feed in most of these states than there are cattle to eat."

Notwithstanding this situation, these foreign buyers are in Arizona today trying to beat down the price of beef. They are anxious to buy and buy now because they know well enough what the trend of the market is bound to be right quick because of the scarcity of beef. They know that beef is bound to go up and that's why they want the cattlemen here to "get out from under" right now. The reason is that they want to "get in" as fast as the Arizona cattlemen "gets out from under" as they phrase it.

Now, as a matter of fact, I happen to know that right now there are parties here in Arizona from the north country trying to arrange some method for getting a lot of Arizona yearlings up into their country to eat some of this surplus feed they have on hand. The feed situation here in the valley is getting better every day. Thousands of acres of land here in the valley have been planted to grain that is too late to mature. It will be out for hay. And you can see what is going to happen to the hay market. Over in the Imperial Valley the same thing is true.

In spite of these facts these packer buzzards are sitting on the fences and croaking about the poor outlook for the cattlemen of Arizona. Pure propaganda and poppycock—that's all it is. I want to say that the cattlemen who sold their beef to these buyers after listening to their propaganda for the past week or so, made a big mistake. Any cattlemen who can possibly hold on to his tuff ought to do so. The future is brighter than it has been in a long time. Those holding mortgages on cattle want to look into this feed situation before asking the cattlemen to sell."

So, stockman, take Ed's advice and "hold that steer."

Young Jones Was Fired From Commission, Claim

PHOENIX, Apr. 2—It just beats all how things wiggle their way into the newspapers. Here the corporation went and dismissed Lloyd Jones, chief clerk of the commission's insurance department, and everything was thought to be quiet, and the commission was biding its time to announce the departure of Mr. Jones, and pop!—the story comes out in print!

That's the impression one would get after a conversation with a member of the commission, rumor had it that young Jones, who is the son of F. A. Jones, recently retired chairman of the corporation commission, had been asked to resign from his position with the commission. The story was that Loren Vaughn, new member of the commission, took exception to some alleged remarks that Lloyd Jones made about

Mr. Vaughn. An executive meeting of the commission was held, following which Dave Johnson, member of the commission approached Mr. Jones, and the following conversation ensued:

"Well, Lloyd, they tagged me 'it.'"

"Meaning what?" asks Jones.

"Meaning that I was elected to tell you that you are fired."

"How come?"

And thereupon followed the tale that Mr. Jones presence as an employee of the commission was distasteful to Mr. Vaughn. That there was really nothing personal in Mr. Vaughn's distaste for young Jones, except that he hated to be talked about to his discredit by one of the men under him. And Mr. Johnson explained that under a rule of the commission, if one member objected to the presence of an employee in the office such employee would be asked to resign.

"You know how it is," Dave is alleged to have remarked to Lloyd with a shrug of the shoulders.

"Yeah," sighed Lloyd, while a smile played around the corners of his

Recent Storm Is Benefit To Cattlemen

PHOENIX, Apr. 6—Checking over the reports coming into his office, Ed Stephens, secretary to the livestock sanitary board, announces that the recent storm was of general benefit to stockmen throughout the state.

Flagstaff reports a generous rainfall which later turned to snow, leaving a white blanket four inches deep up on the northern plateau. Globe, Prescott and Tucson inspectors report good rainfalls. The mountain country generally shared in the precipitation. Getting down into Cochise county, the rainfall appears to have tapered off to light showers here and there.

The storm means a big boost to stockmen.

Nebraskans Vote Against "Movies" And Sunday Baseball

OMAHA, Apr. 6—A majority of Nebraska towns whose votes were cast yesterday in municipal elections, went on record against Sunday baseball and moving picture shows.

mouth. "Yeah, I know." Perhaps there was a silent clapping of hands. Perhaps not. The rumor is not quite clear on that point.

At any rate, Lloyd Jones is said to have gone immediately to interview Mr. Vaughn in his office, and the reporter went something like this:

"Why do you say that I have talked disrespectfully about you, Mr. Vaughn?"

"Because I understand you have—I have god authority for believing you have."

And so they got down to cases, Mr. Jones being desirous to learn where the disrespectful remarks had been made. Mr. Vaughn suggested a pool hall, to which Lloyd demurred that he didn't frequent pool halls. Then it was a cigar store, probably. Lloyd seldom went into a cigar store. Well, it was somewhere.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Halls' Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. and wide at depth as it is where it has already been opened, a mill of considerable size will be needed. A probable site for the mill has already been selected about a mile away from the mine, on the Colorado river.

On all sides of the Catherine mine, it is reported, people are staking their claims, and scores of prospectors are rushing into the district from all parts of the country. It will not be possible to do much development work during the coming hot summer season, but mining men predict a boom of the first magnitude in that section next fall, said Judge O'Connor who is familiar with the boom days of California, his native state.

ONE PRICE TO ALL

The bed rock of this business is ONE PRICE—the same to all under like conditions.

To this great principle, more than to any other single factor, do we attribute the growth of our business in volume and in the confidence of our customers.

One Price means that on any given day we must charge all customers exactly the same for each article billed out during the day. We cannot, however, discriminate. We have no method, if we had the will, to charge one set of prices to some customers and another set to other customers.

The only practical rule, and we believe the only fair one, is to charge all goods to all customers at prices current on the day invoice is made out.
