

"BUY SOMETHING MADE OF COPPER"

PATAGONIA IS IN THE HEART OF THE WORLD'S RICHEST COPPER, SILVER,
GOLD AND LEAD DISTRICTS

SANTA CRUZ PATAGONIAN

JOIN PATAGONIA'S CHAM-BER OF COMMERCE & MINES
AND BE A BOOSTER FOR THE TOWN AND DISTRICT.

VOL. XI

PATAGONIA, ARIZONA, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1923

NO. 49

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

DANCE AND SUPPER NOV. 28TH IN PATAGONIA

Wednesday, November 28, there will be a dance and supper given at the Opera house, Patagonia, by the Patagonia Social Club. The proceeds of the affair will be used toward payment for the community piano, purchased several months ago and which has been of much enjoyment at social gatherings. The 28th is the night before Thanksgiving. Good music will be on hand. Everybody invited to attend. Tickets $1.50 per couple.

No charge will be made for supper.

L. A. Bechtel returned Friday from Tucson, where he had been on business connected with the state banking department.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil McDonald spent Thursday and Friday a fast week in Nogales on business. Mr. McDonald expects to return to the Altar, Mexico, mining district in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Macia were in town Monday from the American mine, near Hurshaw.

Judge Henderson spent the week-end in Tucson in business.

WANTED—Water wells to drill, by the foot. J. L. ROUNTREE, Patagonia, Ariz.

Ed Le Gendre and Miss Pearl Pierce of Sonoita were dinner guests at the Commercial hotel Sunday evening.

H. R. Sisk, publisher of the Nogales Herald, and wife passed through Patagonia Saturday on their way to spend the week-end with friends in Douglas.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Watkins of Nogales were in Patagonia Sunday.

The Farm Bureau orchestra held a practice meeting at the Commercial Hotel Tuesday night.

Joe Wolfe, an El Paso traveling salesman, was in Patagonia Wednesday calling on the trade.

Miss Minnie Seaman of the State Banking Department is in Patagonia this week, where they will assist H. H. McCutcheon on a sub-contract for Low & Woods on the state highway bridges and culverts.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Broyles and son motored to Huachuca last Sunday.

Herman Passow was in town Monday from his Sonoita ranch.

Two carloads of cattle were shipped Monday from Sonoita to the Yuma Wholesale Meat Company.

Miss Ried of San Diego has taken a position as teacher in the Patagonia school.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Stone motored to Nogales Sunday for their regular weekly visit to the movies.

A. H. Glidewell spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Nogales.

C. J. Trask motored to Tucson Monday on official business.

TURKEY SHOT NOV. 18 AND 25

A turkey shoot will be held in Patagonia November 18 and 25 (Sunday) in "Jail" canyon—the same old place. Everybody invited to come and try their marksmanship. Win a fat young turkey for your Thanksgiving dinner. —Advertisement.

To know how good a cigarette really can be made you must try a

L WHITE BUSBEY

L. White Busbe, for many years secretary and right-hand man to former Representative Joseph G. Cannon of Illinois, has been selected as assistant to John T. Adams, chairman of the Republican national committee, succeeding the late Sumner Curtis. Mr. Busbe began his career in Washington as a correspondent of the Chicago Inter-Ocean.

C. A. Pierce and family motored to Nogales Sunday.

Vail & Ashburn and others shipped more than 900 head of cattle from the Sonoran pens to California Tuesday.

G. J. Simpson, foreman of the Manis-ter ranch, near Elgin, shipped between 400 and 600 head of cattle Tuesday to Glendale, Arizona, where the owner, Lewis Sands has his headquarters.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kane and Mrs. Grace Chapman left Sunday morning for the Chapman ranch on the Santa Cruz river.

Henry Burton of Elgin came in Saturday to see Dr. A. W. Hardtmayer.

Mrs. Woodward and son of Sonoita were in town Saturday.

Mrs. Joe Kane and Mrs. Pete Perry were among the Saturday shoppers in Patagonia.

THREE-DAY CELEBRATION BY RIDGE-IGO POST AM. LEGION

Beginning tomorrow, Saturday, the Ridge-Igo Post, American Legion, of Nogales will start on a big three-day celebration of Armistice Day.

Days of '49 will be depicted by old time gambling games, in which Mexican money will be used. There will be roulette wheels, faro games, "stud" and all the other reminders of the "good old days."

On Sunday there will be a burlesque bull fight, in which Carlos Molino, the well known bull fighter will participate. Four bulls will be used during the performance.

Carlos Molino has performed all over the United States, and when the Armistice day show is over is going east to show at Madison Square Garden, New York.

On Monday there will be a big parade, participated in by the different fraternal orders of the county, the 25th Infantry, and the American Legion.

A large crowd is anticipated. You are cordially invited to take part and patronize the big show, the Days of '49.

MASONIC LODGE HOLDS PICNIC

Last Sunday Nogales Masons held a picnic on the Santa Cruz river, which was attended by about 150 members of the lodge and their friends and relatives. An enjoyable dinner was served at noon, consisting of barbecued beef and all the good things that usually go into picnic dinners.

Games were enjoyed by young and old. During the afternoon Judge W. A. O'Connor gave a brief history of the picnic grounds and urged their purchase by the lodge as a permanent place for recreation by the Masons.

Ben Colman auctioned the cakes and bread that was left from the dinner, receiving a substantial sum, which will be added to the building fund.

Nogales Masons have been considering the erection of a new building for some time, and it is hoped by members of the fraternal that the idea will take definite shape in the near future.

SCHOOL NOTES

(Ruth Gatlin, School Editor)

The perfect attendance this month is as follows: Ramon Bedal, Josols Jolly, Dean McDonald, George Moreno, Pancha Portello, Edwards Valles, Ruby Baker, Josie Johnson, Beth Fortune, Sarah Pierce, Ruth Gatlin, Jack Pierce, Frank Lanam, Frank Seibold, Alfredo Kim, Raul Amador, Helen Seibold, Clara Valenzuela, Leon Mead, Laura Valenzuela, Vivian May, Louise Stevens, Mary Covello, Ralph Ridge, Margaret Fortune, Mignon Stevens, Vincent Farley, Charlie Wieland, Margie McCutchan, Thelma Wilson, Grace Quiroga and Raymond Kim.

Two new scholars have entered the primary room—Mary and Nina Dawson.

Mary Ellen Trask has been promoted to A 1st on condition.

Mrs. Elder resigned her position as Second grade teacher in Patagonia and Saturday left for Winslow, where she will teach the Fourth and Fifth grades. Miss Reed was selected to fill the position. She was delayed at Benson and did not reach Patagonia until Monday afternoon. Mrs. A. S. Henderson substituted for her that day.

Jean Evans, Mary Costello, Margaret Fortune, Alvina Ochiai and Thelma Wilson have been perfect in spelling during the past months, in Mrs. John McDonald's room.

Clara Valenzuela, Frank Seibold, Francisco Moreno, Laura Valenzuela, Vivian May, Alfredo Ge Quin, Alfredo Valles, and Antonia Sinchia have been perfect in spelling during the past month, in Miss Purcell's room.

The Sixth grade is taking the names in European geography for spelling.

In Miss Sjoberg's room the following pupils have had perfect spelling during the past month: Beth Fortune and Ruth Gatlin.

NOGALES GAMBLING HALLS TO CLOSE BY PRESIDENT'S ORDER

Gambling halls in Nogales, Sonora, must cease to operate under penalty of closing the port to international traffic nightly for 12 hours after 6 p.m., according to a message received by state officials at Hermosillo, capital of Sonora, from President Obregon, say advices received last Saturday.

Violations of the government's orders in connection with the closing of gambling already has caused the closing of the ports at Agua Prieta and Naco for certain hours.

Gambling was resumed last week in Nogales, Sonora, following suspension for more than a month.

NEW PENSION PLAN IN EFFECT FOR COPPER QUEEN MEN

Bisbee, Nov. 7.—A revised pension plan is now in effect by the Copper Queen branch of the Phelps Dodge Corporation.

The principal change from the former plan provides, as formerly, that after 15 years' service any employee permanently incapacitated, physically or mentally, for further work may receive a pension. The company also may, at its option, retire an employee a pension after 15 years' service.

On Sunday there will be a burlesque bull fight, in which Carlos Molino, the well known bull fighter will participate. Four bulls will be used during the performance.

Carlos Molino has performed all over the United States, and when the Armistice day show is over is going east to show at Madison Square Garden, New York.

On Monday there will be a big parade, participated in by the different fraternal orders of the county, the 25th Infantry, and the American Legion.

A large crowd is anticipated. You are cordially invited to take part and patronize the big show, the Days of '49.

MASONIC LODGE HOLDS PICNIC

Last Sunday Nogales Masons held a picnic on the Santa Cruz river, which was attended by about 150 members of the lodge and their friends and relatives. An enjoyable dinner was served at noon, consisting of barbecued beef and all the good things that usually go into picnic dinners.

Games were enjoyed by young and old. During the afternoon Judge W. A. O'Connor gave a brief history of the picnic grounds and urged their purchase by the lodge as a permanent place for recreation by the Masons.

Ben Colman auctioned the cakes and bread that was left from the dinner, receiving a substantial sum, which will be added to the building fund.

Nogales Masons have been considering the erection of a new building for some time, and it is hoped by members of the fraternal that the idea will take definite shape in the near future.

MARGARET WOOLLEY

(Margaret Woolley, School Editor)

Margaret Woolley, whose father was Interstate Commerce Commissioner Robert Wickliffe Woolley under President Wilson, has been studying in the summer school of government and politics conducted by the National League of Women Voters at Columbia University.

LOCAL BANK MAY PAY 100 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR

Through the efforts of L. A. Pennington, deputy state superintendent of banks and receiver of the First State Bank of Patagonia, which closed its doors last May, affairs have taken on some semblance of order and unless something unforeseen takes place within the next few days depositors will receive 100 cents on the dollar, according to information given the Patagonia Citizen.

Received official stated that this happy ending of the bank's affairs is made possible through the co-operation of the larger depositors, who will take some of the bank's notes in lieu of cash—notes that are good but which have not been paid to date for various good reasons.

Financial assistance was also extended by the Sonora Bank of Nogales, which institution also took over some of the bank's paper. The voluntary assessment of 100 per cent upon the stockholders of the institution also was a big factor in making it possible for the payment of 100 cents on the dollar to the bank's depositors.

The contest for the school children is open to all pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, 14 years old and under. The prizes must be no less than $100.00. "Highway Safety," "Should I drink?" and metal not exceeding one cent in length. It must be submitted no later than December 1, 1923, to the school teacher, who will then forward it to the city or county superintendent, to be forwarded to Mr. Case's office at Phoenix.

The contest for the school children is open to all pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, 14 years old and under. The prizes must be no less than $100.00. "Highway Safety," "Should I drink?" and metal not exceeding one cent in length. It must be submitted no later than December 1, 1923, to the school teacher, who will then forward it to the city or county superintendent, to be forwarded to Mr. Case's office at Phoenix.

The contest for the school children is open to all pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, 14 years old and under. The prizes must be no less than $100.00. "Highway Safety," "Should I drink?" and metal not exceeding one cent in length. It must be submitted no later than December 1, 1923, to the school teacher, who will then forward it to the city or county superintendent, to be forwarded to Mr. Case's office at Phoenix.

The contest for the school children is open to all pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, 14 years old and under. The prizes must be no less than $100.00. "Highway Safety," "Should I drink?" and metal not exceeding one cent in length. It must be submitted no later than December 1, 1923, to the school teacher, who will then forward it to the city or county superintendent, to be forwarded to Mr. Case's office at Phoenix.

The contest for the school children is open to all pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, 14 years old and under. The prizes must be no less than $100.00. "Highway Safety," "Should I drink?" and metal not exceeding one cent in length. It must be submitted no later than December 1, 1923, to the school teacher, who will then forward it to the city or county superintendent, to be forwarded to Mr. Case's office at Phoenix.

The contest for the school children is open to all pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, 14 years old and under. The prizes must be no less than $100.00. "Highway Safety," "Should I drink?" and metal not exceeding one cent in length. It must be submitted no later than December 1, 1923, to the school teacher, who will then forward it to the city or county superintendent, to be forwarded to Mr. Case's office at Phoenix.

The contest for the school children is open to all pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, 14 years old and under. The prizes must be no less than $100.00. "Highway Safety," "Should I drink?" and metal not exceeding one cent in length. It must be submitted no later than December 1, 1923, to the school teacher, who will then forward it to the city or county superintendent, to be forwarded to Mr. Case's office at Phoenix.

The contest for the school children is open to all pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, 14 years old and under. The prizes must be no less than $100.00. "Highway Safety," "Should I drink?" and metal not exceeding one cent in length. It must be submitted no later than December 1, 1923, to the school teacher, who will then forward it to the city or county superintendent, to be forwarded to Mr. Case's office at Phoenix.

The contest for the school children is open to all pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, 14 years old and under. The prizes must be no less than $100.00. "Highway Safety," "Should I drink?" and metal not exceeding one cent in length. It must be submitted no later than December 1, 1923, to the school teacher, who will then forward it to the city or county superintendent, to be forwarded to Mr. Case's office at Phoenix.

The contest for the school children is open to all pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, 14 years old and under. The prizes must be no less than $100.00. "Highway Safety," "Should I drink?" and metal not exceeding one cent in length. It must be submitted no later than December 1, 1923, to the school teacher, who will then forward it to the city or county superintendent, to be forwarded to Mr. Case's office at Phoenix.

The contest for the school children is open to all pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, 14 years old and under. The prizes must be no less than $100.00. "Highway Safety," "Should I drink?" and metal not exceeding one cent in length. It must be submitted no later than December 1, 1923, to the school teacher, who will then forward it to the city or county superintendent, to be forwarded to Mr. Case's office at Phoenix.

The contest for the school children is open to all pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, 14 years old and under. The prizes must be no less than $100.00. "Highway Safety," "Should I drink?" and metal not exceeding one cent in length. It must be submitted no later than December 1, 1923, to the school teacher, who will then forward it to the city or county superintendent, to be forwarded to Mr. Case's office at Phoenix.

The contest for the school children is open to all pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, 14 years old and under. The prizes must be no less than $100.00. "Highway Safety," "Should I drink?" and metal not exceeding one cent in length. It must be submitted no later than December 1, 1923, to the school teacher, who will then forward it to the city or county superintendent, to be forwarded to Mr. Case's office at Phoenix.

The contest for the school children is open to all pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, 14 years old and under. The prizes must be no less than $100.00. "Highway Safety," "Should I drink?" and metal not exceeding one cent in length. It must be submitted no later than December 1, 1923, to the school teacher, who will then forward it to the city or county superintendent, to be forwarded to Mr. Case's office at Phoenix.

The contest for the school children is open to all pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades, 14 years old and under. The prizes must be no less than $100.00. "Highway Safety," "Should I drink?" and metal not exceeding one cent in length. It must be submitted no later than December 1, 1923, to the school teacher, who will then forward it to the city or county superintendent, to be forwarded to Mr. Case's office at Phoenix.</

GIFT OF THE DESERT

By RANDALL PARRISH

Copyright by
A. C. McClurg & Co.

THE STORY THUS FAR

SYNOPSIS.—On the isolated Meager ranch on the southern border, Deborah, Meredith-trained nurse, is in attendance on Mrs. Meager, whose husband has recently been killed. Immediately after the death, Bob Meager, Mrs. Meager's stepson, arrives and takes possession. He insults Deborah, and she resolves to leave, but there seems no possibility of her getting away. Meager ghosts over Deborah's plight. He tells her he has sent for Justice, the man who will avenge them tomorrow. Horrified, the girl sees a revolver. The Justice, Cornelius Garrity, sounder and bosom friend of Meager, arrives with a party, among them the "Frisco Kid," notorious desperado. Despite Deborah's protests, the Justice performs the marriage ceremony. She escapes and reaches her room. There she stuns Meager with the revolver and runs to the adobe, hoping to secure a horse and escape. There she meets the "Frisco Kid." Somehow he inspires her with confidence and she explains the situation. The "Kid" tells her his name is Daniel Kelleen, that he is no friend of Meager. They ride off together into the desert. Presently she realizes that Kelleen is the "Frisco Kid," but doesn't fear him. Deborah tells the story of the "Frisco Kid." Kelleen disappears and Deborah is seized by a man who carries her to what is apparently a cave.

CHAPTER X—Continued.

Deborah's searching eyes, now able to distinguish objects with some clearness, scanned the rock walls to the obscured entrance. At first she could not be sure, but finally the vague outlines of the man seated on the rock became visible. He was huddled forward in such grotesque posture as scarcely to appear human, but gradually the girl realized what the uncouth shape must be, could even detect the long, scraggly beard, the great breadth of shoulders, and the rifle, on which he leaned. With this discovery came the instant assurance also that the fellow slept soundly. A thrill of hope brought courage, and new strength to her limbs. Might it not be possible for her to steal forward silently, and then, with a sudden spring, clear the obstruction of vines, and gain the free day without, before the slumbering guard could even comprehend what had occurred? The house was not hundred yards away, at even if she had to leap boldly from off the shelf of rock, she would willingly dare all for a chance at escape. Yet she had not advanced three steps until she realized the impossibility of the effort—the sleeping body utterly blocked the passage.

She could perceive the fellow now with some distinctness, a giant of a man, with long, apelike arms, bare and hairy, an oddly formed head, almost pear-shaped, long hair shading the face, and a black beard sweeping to his knees. Slowly, silently, without actually knowing why, the girl drew back into the deeper darkness behind her, guiding herself with one hand against the rough wall. Into her mind had come the faint hope of another egress somewhere, the very purity of air suggesting such a possibility. She even imagined she felt a draft upon her cheek. Yet there was no glimmer of light. Once her groping foot struck against fragments of rock left lying where they fell. She bent down better to assure herself of the obstruction, and her exploring fingers touched a pile. It was a mine, then: this secret excavation had been man's work! Nature may have pointed the way, but this tunnel itself originated through lust of wealth. Her fingers were not outwards but men crazed by fear of losing what they had unceasingly in these rocky hills. Yet this knowledge rendered her situation no wiser less dangerous.

Deborah crept forward over the pile of debris, discovering that this fall of stone did not denote the ending of the passage. Suddenly her groping hands revealed a sharp curvature in the tunnel, and she worked her way about the corner with utmost caution. Then she stopped, rooted to the spot, her heart almost ceasing to beat. Far above, up what appeared to be a sharply inclined chute through the solid rock, came streaming down a single ray of daylight, its faint reflection resting directly upon the upturned face of a dead man, stretched on the tunnel floor.

Deborah, startled, swayed back against the wall for support, staring down into that white, unmoving face, clearly revealed within the little pool of light. It was the face of a young man, his dark, wide-open eyes staring blindly up into vacancy, his brown hair cut short, almost good-looking, even in death, with whiskers freshly shaved. This last was what caused the girl, brought her back quickly to life and action. He had the appearance of having shaved that very morning; the stubble of his beard was not even visible. Then, changed by the facts—his revolver was in the holster at his waist, and the hand held upright against the side well, gripped a folded paper. He had just been killed, not more than two hours before surely, and in no duel—perhaps he had fallen to where he lay while climbing that narrow passage above. But the wound? There was none visible—not even a bruise on the face. As a woman, Deborah shrank from touching the body, but her training as a nurse instantly conquered. She must learn the truth, disagreeable as the task might be. On her knees, exerting all her strength, she partially turned the body—the man had been shot in the back.

She seemed to comprehend it all in a flash, visioning the scene as she rose quickly to her feet. He must have done the deed—that older man with the beard—shooting treacherously from behind. It had been deliberate murder. But the purpose was not so clear. To all appearances the assassin had never even approached his victim after he fell. Confident of the deadly accuracy of his aim, he had left the inert body lying where it struck, untouched, not even the dead man's gun being removed from its holster, or the folded bit of paper released from those gripping fingers.

The unspeakable, treacherous horror of the act appalled Deborah. There must be some reason behind it all. It was too cold, cruel, deliberative not to have definite cause. No speculation now could solve the mystery, but the murderer still lived; he was back yonder in the darkness she had just left. He would no more spare her than he had shown mercy to this other victim. If he still slept she must take advantage of the moment for escape—the one chance up that long passage toward the gleam of light at the top. She stepped across the dead body, grasping her skirts tightly in one hand; then hesitated for an instant, obsessed by a new thought. Perhaps that paper might explain all, might prove the very key to all this mystery. She bent, and wrestled it from out the stiffened fingers, hastily endeavoring to learn what it contained. It was a thick, tough sheet, the folds showing yellow and dirty as though it had been carried a long while, and there was writing inside, fine penmanship, but so indistinct her eyes were unable to decipher a single word in that dim light. She thrust it into the bosom of her blouse, her eyes anxiously searching the only possible way out.

It seemed promised even that, as revealed by that single ray barely illuminating the passage. Apparently an irregular sized hole, worn between layers of solid rock by the action of water, it led upward at a sharp angle, and, while wide enough at the lower extremity to permit the entrance of a full-grown man, seemed to contract at the upper opening so as to make it very doubtful if an ordinary body could squeeze through into the open air beyond. Yet Deborah felt that she had no choice but to accept this single chance of deliverance. She could not remain there with the dead man, nor retreat her steps backward to where the murderer remained asleep on guard. Her belt was still about her waist, but its holster was empty. Before beginning to climb, she drew the dead man's gun from its scabbard, and stuck it into her own. As she did so the light from above glimmered on a pearl-studded handle, and a barrel of blue steel.

She Listened Eagerly for Any Sound From Below.

In a chimney, making use of every projection as a support to either hand or foot, and thus steadily approaching the opening overhead. Her courage had returned; there had been no attack from beneath, no evidence of life.

Deborah reached the end of her climb breathlessly, her limbs aching from exertion, her heart sinking with dismay. It never could be accomplished, the passage of her body through that narrow opening to the world without. How sweet the fresh air felt; how beautifying the blue arch of sky, yet it was hopeless of attainment. The very sadness of the thought proved her salvation. Crazed for the moment, she began to dig frenziedly with her fingers at the obstruction, tearing at a projecting point of rock, which suddenly yielded to the furious attack, a stream of loosened sand pouring after. Little by little, madly tearing at the sides of the orifice, she managed to wear away every fragment back to the solid rim of rock. She unlatched the revolver and flung it through the opening; then drew herself upward, fervent every instant of being irretrievably caught, yet finding purchase below for her feet sufficient to thrust her slender body steadily forward. At last her shoulders emerged into the outer air, and she was enabled to drag the rest of her body over the rim of rock. Utterly exhausted, Deborah lay on the sand, gasping for breath, conscious only that she had found refuge in a shallow ravine. She lay there out-stretched in the shadow of a steep bank, with out strength even to lift her head.

CHAPTER XI

More Complications.

Deborah felt that she never would regain power to rise, yet this fatal exhaustion passed away, as she began to breathe more easily, and finally she sat upon the sand, gazing about her family physician.

strange surroundings, eager to discover what she could attempt next. She had escaped from that hell underground, yet was but little better off than before. She was upon the edge of the desert stretching outward toward the Meager ranch. It would be impossible to cross this on foot, with neither food nor water to sustain her, nor could she for a moment contemplate seeking refuge there, even if it were possible. Her only hope was to circle that hidden chasm, and then endeavor to find her way north until she reached some human habitation. The hope of accomplishing this was the merest mirage; the attempt probably meant death. She had no horse, no food, yet somehow, in the exhilaration of that first moment of release, she could not wholly despair. God had been good; she would go on courageously, and trust Him.

She arose to her knees, and looked about. It was a lonely, contracted scene, amid which she was concealed. Some rift in the rocks led down to that opening through which she had just crept. Perhaps it had formed a watercourse in other ages, but now the sand of the desert had drifted in, and covered all with a yellow mantle of desolation. The sides were too steep to scale even on foot, the loose sand falling every attempt, so she was compelled to follow the course of the drift in seeking a way out. For the first few yards of advance the girl had no suspicion she was not alone. A patch of sagebrush limited her view, and she was threading her way through these, when the sound of a voice speaking caused her to cringe suddenly down in the midst of the thicket and the motionless, scarcely daring to breathe. It was the voice itself which paralyzed her every voluntary, a voice instantly recognized, never to be forgotten—the voice of Bob Meager.

He was not dead, then; the blow struck had no more than stunned the man, and—she was his wife, Deborah's fingers dug at the sand in sudden agony, as the hideous thought came home anew to her mind. In some mysterious way he must have discovered what had occurred, suspected that she and Kelleen had ridden away together, and then followed like an Indian on the trail. She lifted her head suddenly; another voice spoke quietly, indifferently. Surely the voice was familiar; it must have been Kelleen himself who spoke.

She crept forward inch by inch, crouching low behind the sage until she could see the figures of two men. Neither one faced her; Meager sat on the side of the bank, his horse grazing just beyond, while the "Frisco Kid" remained in the saddle, his mount still breathing heavily, as though he had only just arrived after a hard ride.

"Well, what difference does it make?" he asked quietly. "Am I to die on this or not?"

"Of course you're in now," was the only response. "I reckon that was what caused you to show up in these parts, ain't it? I wondered what was being pulled off when you rode in last night. Say, 'Kid,' why really piped it to you—Casheer or Garsity?"

"The less you know about that the longer you'll live, Bob," Kelleen replied calmly. "It is enough that I do not know, not only what you are up to out here, but that it was also your game to double-cross me. You tried the same game once before, Bob. The scheme has never worked very well. You haven't got the brains to do it with. Casheer never told me anything, nor Garsity. All I needed was to know you and your kind. You were never honest in your life, and when I heard about this deal it was easy enough to figure what was up."

"What deal, 'Kid'? What do you mean?"

"This ranch inheritance. Garrity fixed up so mighty for you. No, I haven't all the dope—not yet. But I'm on my way to it, all right; the newest deal I ever heard about, and it will blow up like a pinched balloon just as soon as your stepmother gets nerve enough to see a good lawyer. That's true, ain't it, Bob?"

"The old man left it to me."

"Yes, he did—not. I was down in old Mex when I first heard what was going on up here. Young Cain got hold of one end of the story somehow, and told it to me. You remember Cain?"

"He worked here on the ranch."

"Yes; that's what made him tall; he's square, that kid, and you feed him, and every other American on the place; then put on Mexicanos. That made him sore. When he told me that Cain pretty near knowing what was up."

"You did, hey? Wanted a hand in the game?"

"Why shouldn't I, Bob? I held you up when you was that, didn't I? There is no reason why you should forget me now. To you! I mean to see that you don't. That's what I'm here for. Now listen, I'm on to what is going to be pulled off tonight—this Casheer business. You sent Sanchez and his brother over here to take care of the Casheer outfit—that's right?"

Kelleen growled something indistinctly. His eyes angrily watched, but Kelleen remained on guard.

TO BE CONTINUED.

The Addict.

Among Jimmie Madison's favorite games is one concerning the two men who were getting separated through the hardness of racial conventions.

"The poor play-act!" implored one of them.

"Not so bad," said the other. "I can't give it up."—New York Herald.

TALES OF THE OLD FRONTIER

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

(© 1923, Western Newspaper Union.)

CIRCUIT RIDER DAYS AND WAYS

Yours was not a man-made temple, God and you spoke in a cabin.

Where the humble mickly bowed,

There you sang the "Gospel Gypsies,"

Gave soul-right a happy dawn;

Left them singing songs of Zion,

Laced your horse and journeyed on.

—"The Gospel Gypsies," by William Herschell.

BRIEF ARIZONA ITEMS

The Salt River Valley cotton crop will be worth $11,000,000 this year, our estimates indicate.

Fires damaged the warehouse of the Pumienney Lime Company at Prescott to the extent of $8,000. Insurance covered and the building will be replaced immediately.

More than 150 cattle have died near Elgin of a mysterious disease supposed to be anthrax. Experts have been called in to investigate and remedy the alarming situation.

With cotton plentiful at Yuma and selling at 30 cents, many delinquent taxpayers are calling at the assessor's office, paying their back taxes and also their current taxes.

Dr. Walter F. McClellan, organizer of a chain of labor banks in California, expressed the opinion that the suspended Tucson National bank would be successfully reorganized.

Bunkers have estimated the Yuma project cotton crop at 18,000 bales, which at an average of 30 cents per pound will enrich the district an approximate extent of $3,000,000.

Beginning Saturday, November 10, a three-day Armistice Day celebration will be held in Nogales, ending with a big football game. A "Days of '49" carnival will be one of the main attractions of the festival.

The circuit rider must have counted strongly upon a "reward in heaven" for his earthly recompense was scanty enough. Perhaps the most famous of them all was Peter Cartwright, but even his salary was scarcely in proportion to his fame. The records of a quarterly conference of the Pilgrim Circuit in 1835 show that he received a three months' wage of $16.97½, "quarterize" of $2.12½, and 50 cents for traveling expenses, a total compensation of $19.69.

Cartwright was an eccentric old fellow, stern of demeanor and caustic of tongue. He believed thoroughly in the future of the raw Western country in which he served and he had a great contempt for the narrow provincialism of the Atlantic seaboard. "They represent this country as a vast waste and its people as very ignorant," he once declared. "But if I was going to shoot a fool I would not take aim at a Western man. I would go down to the seashore and cock my fuses at those humps who live on oysters."

The circuit riders preached in a day of rough living and more than once they were called upon to use physical strength in turning the particularly ungodly from the path of sin. Once a band of rowdies interrupted the meeting that was being conducted by one of these churchmen militant. He did not hesitate for a second. Springing over the pulpit of the rude little cabin church, he strode down the aisle, seized two or three of the disturbers and threw them to the floor. Then he sat on them and as he bumped their heads together repeatedly, he remarked: "Well, boys, if I can't beat religion into you, I'll beat the devil out of you!"

And he did it so thoroughly that they never again disturbed his meetings.

THE SUDDEN CHANGE OF '36"

IT WAS in December, 1836, for days

the weather had been mild, but the early settlers in the Mississippi valley shook their heads doubtfully. "It's a weather-breed," they said ominously.

"It was like this in December, 1830

the winter of the deep snow. Look out for a change!"

Then the change came. First a light snow fell, then it turned to rain and the ground became ankle-deep in slush. Suddenly a cold wind began blowing from the west. Almost instantaneously the temperature dropped from 40 degrees above zero to 20 below, a change of 60 degrees in a little more than that many seconds.

The whole face of the country was changed from water to ice and in some places the strong wind blew the water in a series of ripples which froze, making a stretch of ridges on the ice. In one settlement a group of boys, going home from school, came to a pond about fifty yards wide. The boys started to wade across and reached the opposite side only with difficulty for the water was freezing ahead of them. One little fellow had back for a few minutes and by the time he had started the ice was thick enough to support his weight the whole distance.

The "sudden change" of the Colorado river compact would mean the limitation of the state's income from power and "the wiping out of our agricultural future," Governor Hunt declared in a letter to L. Ward Bannister, Denver attorney, who had written the chief executive, urging him to lend support to the compact. "These terms may be equitable as far as the upper basin is concerned," the governor wrote, "but if the lower basin stands as it is written and Boulder canon claim is built, the basin will be ruined wholly at the expense of Arizona. It would be disastrous for the state to see development start at the lowest point in the canon."

Through efforts of the Sunshine Club, the S. P. L. has made Tucson a ten-day stopover point for tourists.

Among the amusements planned for the forthcoming "Bullion" suggestion, a Nogales, Arizona, banquet and a golf tournament at Tucson are featured.

A new plan for diversing water from the Colorado river, making it available for irrigation of upwards of 2,000,000 acres of Arizona land has been proposed by C. C. Tilston, Chino, Arizona, engineer, and laid before governors Hunt and the commanding general. The plan calls for construction of a dam on the Colorado river more than seventy feet high, the building of a tunnel from the dam along the river to the mouth of Little Colorado river and thence upstream on the latter to fifteen to thirty miles from the intake. The cost of the dam and tunnel will be about $1,000,000.

A young boy who was riding home from a neighbor's cabin was thrown from his horse, which ran away. His boots were filled with water and by the time he had reached home, only a short distance away, both boots were frozen fast to his feet. The man, riding across the prairie, realized that he would not be able to reach the nearest settlement alive if he tried to walk. So he dismounted, kicked his boots loose, dismounted it and crawled beside the warm body to escape the freezing wind. Weeks later, however, when his frozen body was taken up, it was found to be still breathing.

Results of the good-natured experiments were not always favorable. In one case, a young man, John D. Johnson, of Tucson, Arizona, was found to have his legs frozen to the ground. He was unable to move, and was unable to get up. He was taken to a hospital, where he was treated with hot water and steam baths, and eventually recovered.

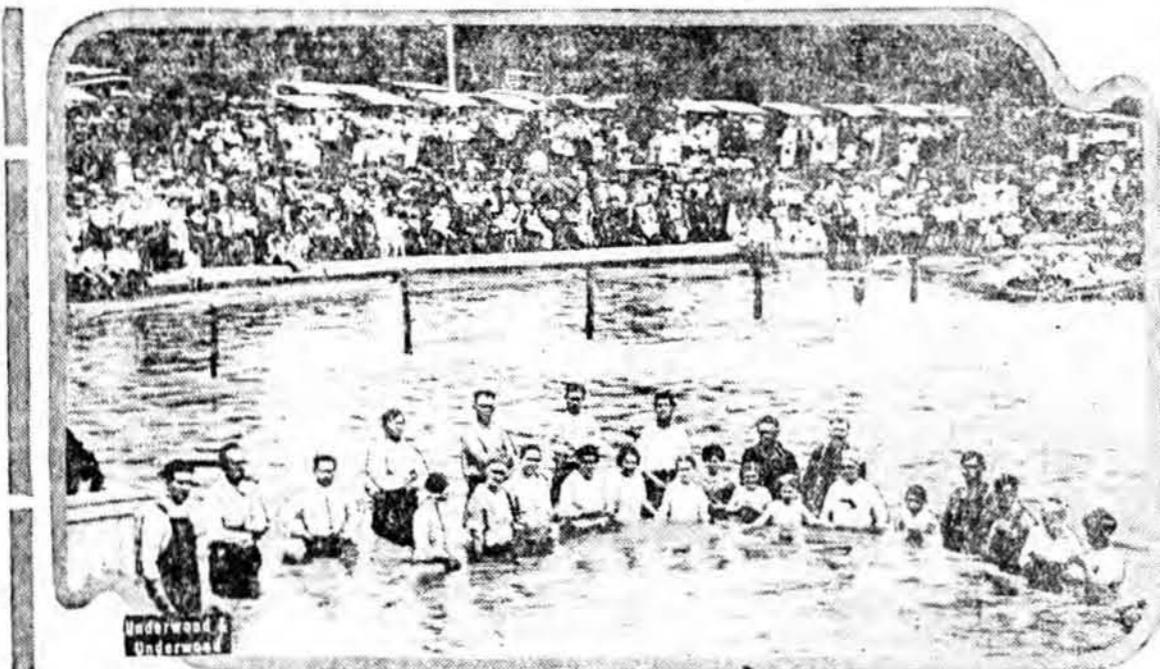

On January 1, 1923, the "Arizona Republic" reported that a man had been found frozen to the ground in a field near Tucson. The man, a Negro, was found lying on the ground with his legs frozen to the ground. He was taken to a hospital, where he was treated with hot water and steam baths, and eventually recovered.

After Every Meal

A universal custom that benefits every body.

Aids digestion, cleanses the teeth, soothes the throat

Converts in Illinois Are Baptized in Relays

Rev. F. A. Calhoun of the interdenominational church at Bloomington, Ill., completing the work of a revival recently held when he converted so many that it was necessary to use the lake to baptize the converts. They were dipped in the lake in relays and the wholesale baptism occupied the greater part of a Sunday afternoon.

Forest Fires That Alarmed the Residents of Pasadena

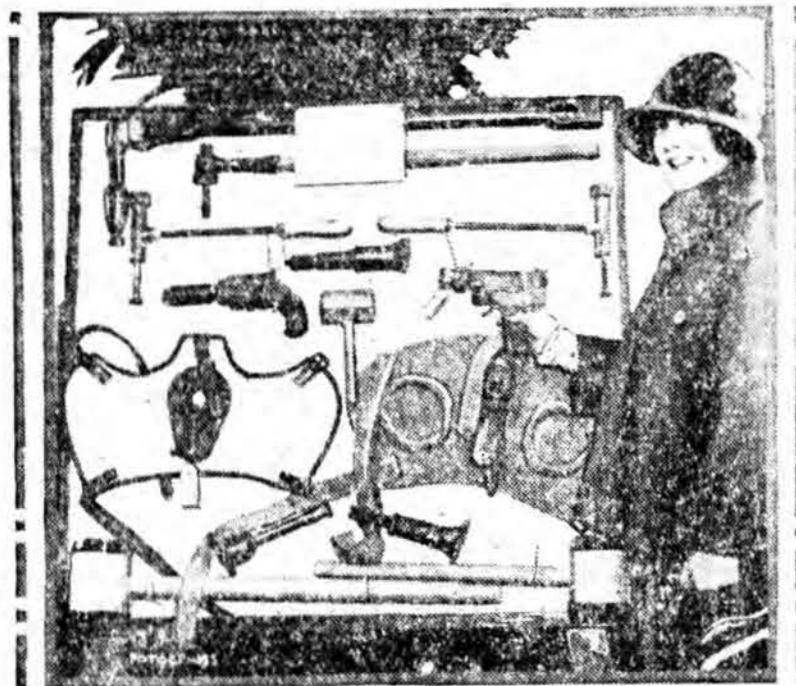

Looking across the Verdugo valley at forest fires which for hours placed several cities of California in peril, including the millionaire colony of Pasadena. Many summer homes in the hills were destroyed.

Women Paint Long Island Church

When recently it became necessary to have the Uniondale chapel at East Hempstead, Long Island, repainted the painters wanted too much for the job. So members of the ladies' aid society decided to do the work themselves. Seventeen of them put on overalls and speedily painted the chapel.

Shown in the Humane Conference

This is an exhibit of instruments used for killing animals, shown at the International Humane conference in the Hotel Astor, New York. Twenty-seven nations were represented at the gathering.

SCRAPS

North Dakota ranks first among the states of the Union in lignite deposits. Owls cannot move their eyes.

There are 40,000 muscles in an elephant's trunk.

A large steamship may have as many as 60 furnaces.

Hulibon is found in all the northern seas, and the fish is the most valued food fish in the world.

Constantinople in early days was called Byzantium.

Semaphores were invented by a Frenchman in 1794.

No part of Scotland is more than 40 miles from sea water.

Three thousand merchant ships fly the Japanese flag.

Texas produces over one-half of the sulphur supply of the world.

The largest peach orchard in the world is in Arkansas.

IT'S NOT A SILENCER

The device this young woman is wearing looks like the latest thing in silencers for women. Instead of that it is the newest respirator for use in dusty factories to protect the health of the workers. It was exhibited at the chemical and industrial exposition in New York.

"Words, Words, Words."

"She thought forlornly, 'These devils! When will they learn that we want words always . . . that we're rather be proselyted by the words we need than set proselyted on thrones . . . when a man loses his lover he remembers what she did; how she served and soothed him with what patience and tenderness. But the woman remembers what he said . . .'"—"Echo," by Margaret Rivers Larimore

COOLIDGE WANTS RATES ADJUSTED

RAILWAY OFFICIALS DISCUSSING FREIGHT SUGGESTIONS OF THE PRESIDENT.

I. C. C. ORDERS AN INQUIRY

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.—President Coolidge, casting aside the rule of silence, spoke out on a prime subject of public interest when he talked to President Samuel Rea of the Pennsylvania railroad on freight rate cuts on coal and grain. Mr. Rea and his fellow railroad officials now are discussing what the President said, with a view to action.

Washington has been considerably puzzled because of the nature of the remedial suggestions made by President Coolidge. He asked that the freight rates on wheat intended for export be cut, while the rates on non-export wheat remain as they are, and that the rates on coal for domestic use be scaled so that they would not be greater than the rates on coal intended for export.

If President Coolidge's suggestions are adopted, they, on the face of them, will give a greater advantage to wheat shipped abroad than to wheat intended for American consumers. In the case of coal the suggestion places the domestic use on the same rate basis. There was no definite explanation of the reason for the difference in treatment of coal consumers and wheat growers.

Washington accepts the suggestion of President Coolidge to the railroad chieftains as a definite hint of a means to help the farmer, and the suggestion as to coal as a definite hint of a means to close down on the complaints of American consumers of coal along the border that the Canadians are being better treated than the Americans in the matter of the price of American coal.

Rate Inquiry Is Ordered.

The interstate commerce commission has just issued an order on its own initiative for a general inquiry into the fairness of existing rates on grain and grain products. The commission has denied at least temporarily the petition of western grain growing states, which has been pending for several months, asking for a reduction in freight rates on grain and grain products. The complaint has not been dismissed, however. The case has been reopened for the taking of more evidence.

The complaint case is known as the Kansas grain rate case, because it was brought before the commission by that state. The commission held that the evidence has not shown that the grain and the hay rates are unjust, but it has declared a willingness to proceed with evidence-taking, thus giving the group of middle-western states which are interested a further chance to make good their claims.

The general investigation into the fairness of existing rates on grain and grain products, which the interstate commerce commission has authorized, will be carried along the following lines, the verbiage being that of the commission's order for the inquiry:

"To determine whether and to what extent the rates, charges, regulations and practices of carriers subject to the Interstate Commerce act in respect to the transportation of grain and grain products in interstate or foreign commerce are, or for the future will be, unjust, unreasonable or otherwise unlawful, and in such case to prescribe just, reasonable and lawful rates, charges, regulations and practices thereunto to be observed."

Unfairness Not Yet Proved.

In the Kansas case the commission, in its opinion, said:

"Upon the present record we would be led to conclude that the general basis of rates on grain, grain products and hay within the western crop has not been shown to be unjust, unreasonable, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise in violation of the Interstate Commerce act."

Two commissioners, Mr. McChord and Mr. Campbell, dissented from the opinion. Commissioner McManamy did not participate in the hearing on the case or in its disposition.

President Coolidge seems to be intent on finding some solution for the problem of the farmers of the grain-growing states. His attempts do not go altogether without criticism from members of his own party. Senator Ladd, Republican, of North Dakota, who has just returned from Europe, already has made something more than a mild attack on the plan of the President which resulted in the sending of a commission into the states of the Central Northwest for study and report purposes. Senator Ladd has said that it is impossible to effect any relief through such an organization to meet this emergency.

No student of economics in Washington apparently believes that any plan can be proposed for the relief of any economic condition which will not meet with criticism. As one man has put it, "The only thing to do is to fit everything which looks helpful on its face, and keep on trying until the solving factor of the problem is found."

Veterans' Bureau Well Conducted.

Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, director of the veterans' bureau, gave the members of the American Legion in convention assembled in San Francisco a modest account of his six months' stewardship.

When General Hines was appointed director of the bureau he was told that if he took the place he would find he had taken over the hardest job under government.

The story is that the general's answer to this was, "Well, that is one of the reasons I must take it."

From the day that the bureau was established until Director Hines assumed office the complaints against the service were constant. There were not only complaints against the government, but probably the fault did not lie so much in the officials of the bureau as with the politicians who tried to make of the service a dumping ground for refuse friends who said they needed jobs and who could not get them anywhere else.

When it is said that former pilots of the bureau perhaps were not to blame for conditions, it is meant only that they were blameless so far as their initial intentions were concerned. Apparently they did not have sufficient backbone to stand up against the job-seeking ones who had political backing but who were devoid of the qualities which make for good work. Every official of the veterans' bureau since the day of its establishment probably has meant well, but the trouble has been until recently that they did not do well.

Good Effects of Discipline.

When Frank T. Hines was asked by President Harding to take the job men said, and a good many of those who said it were veterans, that Hines was an old-time regular army officer; that he would be "hard boiled" in his methods and that strict discipline would be brought into play in a place where it was out of place.

There recently has been discipline in the veterans' bureau, apparently, but it has been the proper kind of effective discipline which has kept employees at their work in behalf of the veterans. There has been no flogging and as a result, work which used to lag has gone steadily on at a quiet pace.

Director Hines perhaps did show some "hard boiled" tendencies, but the veterans, so far as their claims and their cases were concerned, have had no personal evidences of it. The director was hard boiled toward the job-seeking politicians who did not care at all whether the men for whom they wanted appointments were fit for the work or not. All that they wanted to do was to get them into places where they could draw their pay.

It did not take the job seekers long to find out that with the new director the first consideration was the good of the wards of the government. One does not hear today that men in four thousand-dollar positions in the veterans' bureau are drawing their pay while junior clerks do their work for them.

No Politics This Time.

There does not seem to be any politics in the direction of the work of the bureau. The writer of this, though he knows General Hines personally, does not know what party he belongs to. President Harding picked the general for the job because of the commanding excellence of the executive work that he did during the war. The appointment of the director to office was one of the few appointing acts which was not followed by charges that another politician had been given a job.

This article is written by an ex-service man, who like other ex-service men felt in the past that the bureau which was established for the benefit of wounded and sick veterans was not doing its work. The ex-service men from the very beginning have noticed the proverbial whomp whether the director was a Democrat or a Republican, a wet or a dry. All that they wanted and all that they want is that the men who were shot up in the war or brought low by illness be given proper care. As things stand today the ex-service men seem to be satisfied with the bureau's work.

Of course General Hines has been in office only six months, but the one great thing has been accomplished: the job-seeking politicians in Washington have real, understood and obeyed the order of "Hands off." The politicos can be kept out of the bureau; efficiency will stay in it, but otherwise there will be a return to old conditions. The veterans seem to hold the comfortable belief that General Hines will stay on the job and will continue to do as he has done.

Missed the Leviathan.

A French naval officer is a story about how the Leviathan came near being sunk in 1918 with 11,000 American soldiers aboard. The writer is Admiral Fourtan, and he got the story from an eyewitness, a member of General Pershing's staff, one day in value weather four submarine torpedoes struck upon the great ship which squared her with its fourinch guns. The German submarine, with the fleet in sight, made a course parallel to that of the Leviathan and fired at a large bird-like target. In a few minutes the enemy came up astern. The ship was making 20 knots while the torpedo were moving very slowly. It was learned later that the Germans failed to get their big game because the submarine was manned by inexperienced officers on their first trip.

Had to Let Them Out.

A more kind-hearted soul than Aunt Maria never existed. On one occasion a neighbor who had looked in for a visit was horrified to see a mouse run across Aunt Maria's kitchen.

"Why on earth don't you set a trap?" she asked.

"Well," replied Aunt Maria, "I did have a trap set, but it was such a fuss. Them mice kept getting into it."

FROM GENERATION TO GENERATION

Mothers Advise Their Daughters to Rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Keep Them in Health

A Mother's Advice Prevents Operation

Corona, N. Y.—"I had a terrible pain in my left side and had to go to bed every so often. Doctors had told me I must be operated on, but I do not believe in the knife and would rather suffer than go through it. My mother also did not believe in it and she made me take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because it had helped her. It has also helped me for I am better and able to do all my work. I recommend your medicine and give you permission to use my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. J. Busch, Jr., 11 S. Railroad Avenue, Corona, N. Y.

gave her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now she is a healthy, happy, hearty, strong girl and weighs 120 pounds. She has no difficulty in doing her 'gym' work, and she works at home every night and morning, too. I am a mother who can certainly praise your medicine, and if it will be of any benefit you may use this letter as a reference."—Mrs. GEORGE E. WHITAKER, 621 W. Madison Ave., Mahoningtown, Pa.

Every girl wants to be healthy and strong, and every mother wants her daughter to do well in school and to enjoy herself at all times.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine for young girls just entering womanhood. Mothers may depend upon it. Remember it is prepared from roots and herbs containing nothing that can injure, and tends to tone up and strengthen the organs concerned, so that they will work in a healthy and normal manner.

For nearly fifty years it has been used by women of all ages, and these women know its great value. Let it help your daughter and yourself.

TAKE HOUSES WITH THEM

Natives of Barbados Load Structure Upon Cart and Carry It to New Location.

Moving in Barbados is no simple task as to cause the envy of the ordinary American householder. When a negro in that happy island motocycles Sir Frederick Treves, in that trade or the Deep, it is not uncommon to meet not only the furniture but the whole house in one round.

The structure is placed on a cart flat, like a puzzle taken to pieces. The four walls are laid one above another as if they were pieces of scenery from a theater. The roof is indistinguishable as such, for the tiles are put into the bottom of the cart. The owner carries the front door on his head and kind friends assist with the window shutters and with the chicken house, mark the time when gnomes in the eve that follows a moving marks the entire establishment newly set up and settled, swept and garnished. Youth's Companion.

Too Silly.

What's the matter, babies? Why did you leave your little playmates?

"She's too silly, mother. I want to play 'merry-mac' and she wants to play shells, and I'm thoroughly incensed with her."—Atlantic Constitution.

Matter of Money.

He Then what did you carry me for?

She Mamma figured it up at the time and said it was about a million and three-quarters.

History is contained in the history book is not half so interesting as history as written by the soldiers when it is being recited to end out what he doesn't know. With the condensedness of a press history, he has been known to state, "The Battle of Waterloo was in 1805. Nelson said every man would expect to do his duty.

Another guy seems to have got mixed between geography and history. According to him, "the canal system lies between the Humber and the Thames." It was the same "young hopeful" who stated that his favorite character in history was Henry the Eighth, because he had eight wives, and killed them all and the last survived him.

An original zinger told the examiner, in writing, that "Walt Tyler had the phrenologist's revolt because he was himself a phrenologist and that its cause was that a shifting position had been put on everybody over so long."

It will be news to most people that the circulation of the blood was discovered by Martin Harvey, and also that the three estates of the realm were Birkingsham, Windsor and Bathurst. London Answers.

After doing one thing do you not often wish that you had done the other?

It is about as easy to induce tenderness as it is to be born fatigued.

"It Keeps Me Awake Nights"—

is the familiar confession of the tea and coffee drinker. The reason is that both tea and coffee contain caffeine—a drug which is the foe of night-time sleep and day-time energy.

Postum, the pure cereal beverage, is delicious and satisfying—and free from all the elements which so many users of coffee and tea find disturbing to nerves and digestion.

Postum contains no stimulant to keep you awake nights.

Sold by grocers everywhere!

Postum for Health

"There's a Reason"

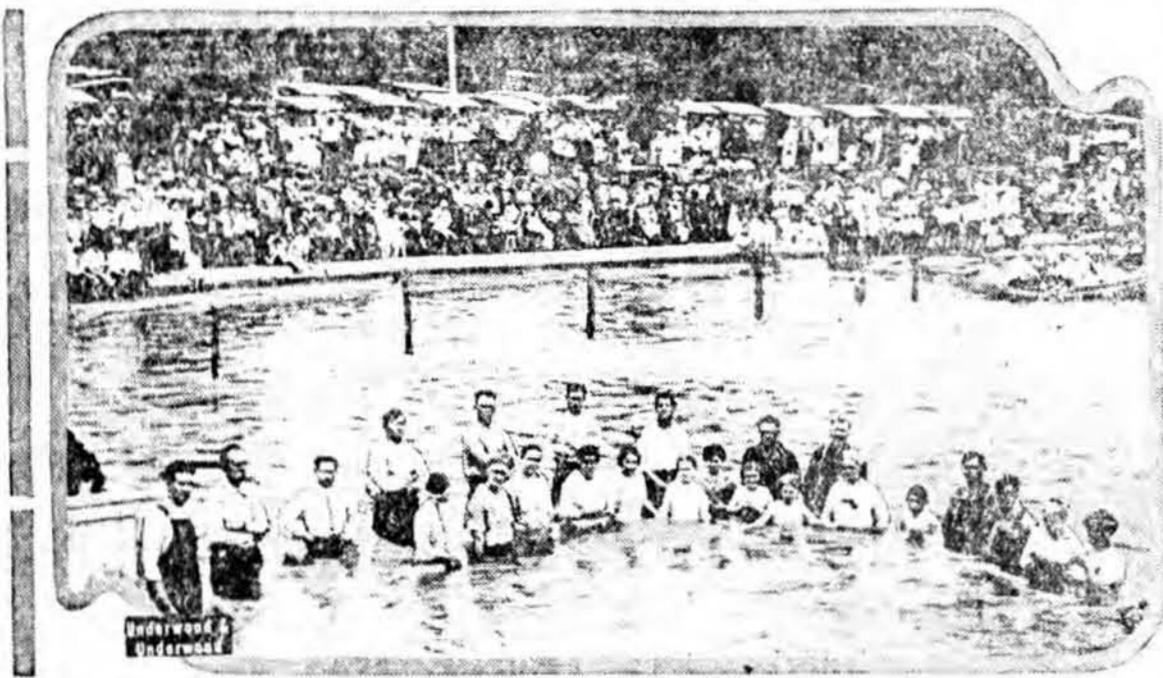

Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum (in cans) prepared in a cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages) for those who prefer the flavor brought out by boiling fully 20 minutes.

The cost of either form is about one half a cent a cup.

Made by Postum Cereal Co., Inc. Battle Creek, Mich.

Converts in Illinois Are Baptized in Relays

Rev. F. A. Callahan of the interdenominational church at Bloomington, Ill., completing the work of a revival he recently held when he converted so many that it was necessary to use the lake to baptize the converts. They were dipped in the lake in relays and the wholesale baptism occupied the greater part of a Sunday afternoon.

Forest Fires That Alarmed the Residents of Pasadena

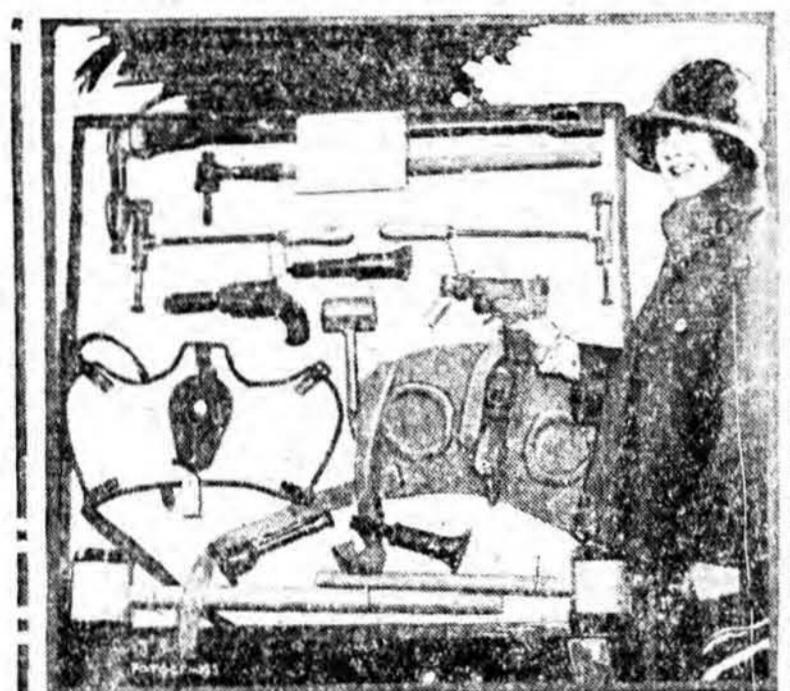

Looking across the Verdugo valley at forest fires which for hours placed several cities of California in peril, including the millionaire colony of Pasadena. Many summer homes in the hills were destroyed.

Women Paint Long Island Church

When recently it became necessary to have the Uniondale chapel at East Hempstead, Long Island, repainted the painters wanted too much for the job. So members of the ladies' aid society decided to do the work themselves. Seventeen of them put on overalls and speedily painted the chapel.

Shown in the Humane Conference

This is an exhibit of instruments used for killing animals, shown at the International Humane conference in the Hotel Astor, New York. Twenty-seven nations were represented at the gathering.

SCRAPS

North Dakota ranks first among the states of the Union in lignite deposits. Owls cannot move their eyes.

There are 40,000 muskels in an elephant's trunk.

A large steamship may have as many as 168 furnaces.

Habibit is found in all the northern seas, and the fish is the most valued good fish in the world.

Constantinople in early days was called Byzantium.

Semaphores were invented by a Frenchman in 1791.

No part of Scotland is more than 40 miles from sea water.

Three thousand merchant ships fly the Japanese flag.

Texas produces one-half of the sulphur supply of the world.

The largest peach orchard in the world is in Arkansas.

IT'S NOT A SILENCER

The device this young woman is wearing looks like the latest thing in silencers for women. Instead of that it is the newest respirator for use in dusty factories to protect the health of the workers. It was exhibited at the chemical and industrial exposition in New York.

"Words, Words, Words."

"She thought forlornly, 'These dear men! When will they learn that we want words always . . . that we'd rather be deceived by the words we need than set prosaically on thrones . . . when a man loses his lover he remembers what she did--how she served and soothed him, with what patience and tenderness.' But the woman remembers what he said . . ."

"Echo," by Margaret Rivers Lanning

COOLIDGE WANTS RATES ADJUSTED

RAILWAY OFFICIALS DISCUSSING FREIGHT SUGGESTIONS OF THE PRESIDENT.

I. C. C. ORDERS AN INQUIRY

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington. -- President Coolidge, casting aside the rôle of silence, spoke out loud on a prime subject of public interest when he talked to President Samuel Rea of the Pennsylvania railroad on freight rate cuts on coal and grain. Mr. Rea and his fellow railroad officials now are discussing what the President said, with a view to action.

Washington has been considerably puzzled because of the nature of the remedial suggestions made by President Coolidge. He asked that the freight rates on wheat intended for export be cut, while the rates on non-export wheat remain as they are, and that the rates on coal for domestic use be scaled so that they would not be greater than the rates on coal intended for export.

If President Coolidge's suggestions are adopted, they, on the face of them, will give a greater advantage to wheat shipped abroad than to wheat intended for American consumers. In the case of coal the suggestion places the domestic use on the same rate basis. There was no definite explanation of the reason for the difference in treatment of coal consumers and wheat growers.

Washington accepts the suggestion of President Coolidge that the railroad chieftains as a definite hint of a means to help the farmer, and the suggestion as to coal as a definite hint of a means to close down on the complaints of American consumers of coal along the border that the Canadians are being better treated than the Americans in the matter of the prices on American coal.

Rate Inquiry Is Ordered.

The interstate commerce commission has just issued an order on its own initiative for a general inquiry into the fairness of existing rates on grain and grain products. The commission has dented at least temporarily the petition of western grain growing states, which has been pending for several months, asking for a reduction in freight rates on grain and grain products. The complaint has not been dismissed, however. The case has been reopened for the taking of more evidence.

The complainant case is known as the Kansas grain rate case, because it was brought before the commission by that state. The commission held that the evidence has not shown that the grain and the hay rates are unjust, but it has declared a willingness to proceed with evidence-taking, thus giving the group of middle-western states which are interested a further chance to make good their claims.

The general investigation into the fairness of existing rates on grain and grain products, which the interstate commerce commission has authorized, will be carried along the following lines, the verbiage being that of the commission's order for the inquiry:

"To determine whether and to what extent the rates, charges, regulations and practices of carriers subject to the Interstate Commerce act in respect to the transportation of grain and grain products in interstate or foreign commerce are, or for the future will be, unjust, unreasonable or otherwise unlawful, and in such case to prescribe just, reasonable and lawful rates, charges, regulations and practices thereon to be observed."

Unfairness Not Yet Proved.

In the Kansas case the commission, in its opinion, said:

"Upon the present record we would be led to conclude that the general basis of rates on grain, grain products and hay within the western group has not been shown to be unjust, unreasonable, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise in violation of the Interstate Commerce act."

Two commissioners, Mr. McChord and Mr. Campbell, dissented from the opinion. Commissioner McManamy did not participate in the writing on the case or in its disposition.

President Coolidge seems to be intent on finding some solution for the problem of the farmers of the grain-growing states. His attempts do not go altogether without criticism from members of his own party. Senator Ladd, Republican of North Dakota, who has just returned from Europe, already has made something more than a mild attack on the plan of the President which resulted in the sending of a commission into the states of the Central Northwest for study and report purposes. Senator Ladd has said that it is impossible to effect any relief through such an organization to meet this emergency.

No student of economics in Washington apparently believes that any plan can be proposed for the relief of any economic condition which will not meet with criticism. As one man has put it, "The only thing to do is to try everything which looks helpful on its face, and keep on trying until the solving factor of the problem is found."

Veterans' Bureau Well Conducted.

Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, director of the veterans' bureau, gave the members of the American Legion a convention assembled in San Francisco a modest account of his six months' stewardship. When General Hines was appointed director of the bureau he was told that if he took the place he would find he had taken over the hardest job under government.

The story is that the general's answer to this was: "Well, that is one of the reasons I must take it."

From the day that the bureau was established until Director Hines assumed office the complaints against the service were constant. There were not only complaints against it; there were charges against it, some of which were unquestionably true. But probably the fault did not lie so much in the officials of the bureau as with the politicians who tried to make the service a sounding board for those friends who said they needed jobs and who could not get them anywhere else.

When it is said that former chiefs of the bureau perhaps were not to blame for conditions, it is meant only that they were blameless, so far as their initial intentions were concerned. Apparently they did not have sufficient backbone to stand up against the job-seeking ones who had political backing but who were devoid of the qualities which make for good work. Since the day of its establishment probably has meant well, but the trouble has been until recently that they did not do well.

Good Effects of Discipline.

When Frank T. Hines was asked by President Harding to take the job men said, and a good many of those who said it were veterans, that Hines was an old-time regular army officer; that he would be "hard boiled" in his methods, and that camp discipline would be brought into play in a place where it was out of place.

There recently has been discipline in the veterans' bureau, apparently, but it has been the proper kind of office discipline which has kept employees at their work in behalf of the veterans. There has been no laziness and as a result, work which used to go has gone steadily on at a quick pace.

Director Hines perhaps did show some "hard boiled" tendencies, but the veterans, so far as their claims and their cases were concerned, have had no personal evidences of it. The director was hard boiled toward the job-seeking politicians who did not care at all whether the men for whom they wanted appointments were fit for the work or not. All that they wanted to do was to get them into places where they could draw their pay.

It did not take the job seekers long to find out that with the new director the first consideration was the good of the wards of the government. One does not hear today that men in four thousand dollar positions in the veterans' bureau are drawing their pay while junior clerks do their work for them.

No Politics This Time.

There does not seem to be any politics in the direction of the work of the veterans. The writer of this, although he knows General Hines personally, does not know to what political party he belongs. President Harding picked the general for the job because of the commanding excellence of the executive work that he did during the war. The appointment of the director to office was one of the few appointing acts which was not followed by changes that another politician had been given a job.

This article is written by an ex-service man, who like other ex-service men felt in the past that the bureau which was established for the benefit of wounded and sick veterans was not doing its work. The ex-service men from the very beginning have not cared the proverbial whom whether the director was a Democrat or a Republican, a wet or a dry. All that they wanted and all that they want is that the men who were shot up in the war or brought low by illness be given proper care. As things stand today the ex-service men seem to be satisfied with the bureau's work.

Of course General Hines has been in office only six months, but the one great thing has been accomplished: the job-seeking politicians in Washington have really understood and obeyed the order of "Hands off." Politics can be kept out of the bureau, efficiency will stay in it, but otherwise there will be a return to first conditions. The veterans seem to hold the comfortable belief that General Hines will stay on the job and will continue to do as he has done.

Missed the Leviathan.

A French admiral tells a story about how the Leviathan came near being sunk in 1875 with 14,000 American sailors aboard. The writer is Admiral Delclos and he got the story from an eye-witness, a member of General Beauchamp's staff. One day in 1875 weather was so abominable that the Germans were unable to open up the great trap which opened into the sea with its marshy gulf. The Germans surrendered with the intention of shooting a rescue party to that of the Leviathan and firing at a large broadside.

Brig. Gen. Frank T. Hines, director of the veterans' bureau, gave the members of the American Legion a convention assembled in San Francisco a modest account of his six months' stewardship. When General Hines was appointed director of the bureau he was told that if he took the place

Had to Let Them Out.

A more kindly-hearted soul than Aunt Maria never existed. On one occasion a neighbor who had looked in for a visit was horrified to see a mouse run across Aunt Maria's kitchen.

"Why on earth don't you set a trap?" she asked.

"Well," replied Aunt Maria, "I didn't have a trap set, but it was such a trap. Them mice kept gettin' into it!"

FROM GENERATION TO GENERATION

Mothers Advise Their Daughters to Rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Keep Them in Health

A Mother's Advice Prevents Operation

Corona, N. Y.—"I had a terrible pain in my left side and had to go bed every so often. Doctors had told me I must be operated on, but I do not believe in the knife and would rather suffer than go through it. My mother also did not believe in it and she made me take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because it had helped her. It has also helped me for I am better and able to do all my work. I recommend your medicine and give you permission to use my letter as a testimonial!"—Mrs. J. Busch, Jr., 11 S. Railroad Avenue, Corona, N. Y.

Every girl wants to be healthy and strong, and every mother wants her daughter to do well in school and to enjoy herself at all times.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine for young girls just entering womanhood. Mothers may depend upon it. Remember it is prepared from roots and herbs, contains nothing that can injure, and tends to tone up and strengthen the organs concerned, so that they will work in a healthy and normal manner.

For nearly fifty years it has been used by women of all ages, and these women know its great value. Let it help your daughter and yourself.

A Sickly Child

Mahonington, Pa.—"I would like to say a few words about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. About a year ago I thought it would be necessary for me to take my daughter out of school. She was losing weight, was nervous, and when she would come home from school she would drop into a chair and cry, and say, 'Mamma, I don't believe I can go to school another day!' I

TAKE HOUSES WITH THEM SOMETHING NEW IN HISTORY

Natives of Barbados Load Structure Upon Cart and Carry It to New Location.

Schoolboy Discovers That Nelson Won the Battle of Waterloo in One Round.

History is continued in the history book is not half so interesting as history as it is written by the schoolboy when he is fully educated to find out what he doesn't know. With the completeness of a press bureau, he has been taught to write. The Battle of Waterloo was in 1815. Nelson said every man should expect to die his duty, without won or won round.

Another boy seems to have got mixed between geography and history. According to him, "the stentor system lies between the Rhine and the Thames." It was the same "young hopeful" who stated that his favorite character in history was Henry the Eighth, because he had eight wives, and all but the last survived him!

An original genius told the examiner in writing that "Wat Tyler had the pleasurable revolt because he was himself a peasant, and that its color was that a peasant had been put on everybody over sixteen."

It will be news to most people that the circumlocution of the blood was discovered by Martin Thraske, and also that the three estates of the realm—Buckinghamshire, Windsor castle, and Beaumaris—London Arc works.

After doing one thing do you not often wish that you had done the other?

She Maaman figured it up at the time and said it was about a billion and three-quarters.

It is almost as easy to argue foolishness as it is to become foolish.

"It Keeps Me Awake Nights"—

is the familiar confession of the tea and coffee drinker. The reason is that both tea and coffee contain caffeine—a drug which is the foe of night-time sleep and day-time energy.

Postum, the pure cereal beverage, is delicious and satisfying—and free from all the elements which so many users of coffee and tea find disturbing to nerves and digestion.

Postum contains no stimulant to keep you awake nights.

Sold by grocers everywhere!

Postum for Health
"There's a Reason"

Your grocer sells Postum in two forms: Instant Postum [in cans] prepared in a cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal [in packages] for those who prefer the flavor brought out by boiling fully 20 minutes. The cost of either form is about one-half cent a cup.

Made by Postum Cereal Co., Inc.
Battle Creek, Mich.

Fletcher's CASTORIA

MOTHER! Fletcher's Castoria is a harmless Substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Teething Drops and Soothing Syrups, prepared to relieve Infants in arms and Children all ages of

Constipation Wind Colic
Flatulence To Sweeten Stomach
Diarrhea Regulate Bowels

Aids in the assimilation of Food, promoting Cheerfulness, Rest, and

Natural Sleep without Opiums

To avoid imitations, always look for the signature of Fletcher
Printed directions on each package. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

Patagonia Barber Shop

WILLIAM FESSLER, Proprietor

Children's Hair-Cutting a Specialty

PATAGONIA

ARIZONA

One of the best Hotels in Southern Arizona, with every home appointment for the traveling public in the

COMMERCIAL HOTEL PATAGONIA, ARIZONA

Clean Beds, Clean Linen, Cleanly kept. Excellent Lobby, Dining Room in connection

RICHARDSON
REAL ESTATE, MINING &
COMMERCIAL CORP.
PATAGONIA, ARIZONA

General Merchandise

STAG BARBER SHOP

Geo. Januel, Proprietor Nogales, Ariz.

Hot and Cold Baths

NOGALES- PATAGONIA SHORT LINE

THE CONVENIENT, COMFORTABLE WAY

Leave Nogales 9 a.m. Arrive Patagonia 10:30 a.m.
Leave Patagonia 11 a.m. Arrive Nogales 12:30 p.m.
Leave Nogales 5 p.m. Arrive Patagonia 6:30 p.m.
Leave Patagonia 7 p.m. Arrive Nogales 8:30 p.m.

Auto Stage leaves on Schedule Time at Montezuma Hotel, Nogales, and from the Patagonia Drug Company, Patagonia.

SANTA CRUZ PATAGONIAN

HOWARD KEENER, Pub. and Owner

Subscription, $2.00 a Year in Advance
Six Months $1.50
Three Months $1.00

Entered at the postoffice at Patagonia, Ariz., as second-class mail matter

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

OFFICIAL PAPER

Santa Cruz County Farm Bureau

Advertising Rates on Application.

To Whom It May Concern

It will be the earnest endeavor of the Santa Cruz Patagonian never intentionally to wound the feelings of any one. Should an erroneous statement appear in the columns of this paper, call our attention to it, and if an error, due correction will be made and ample justice cheerfully accorded.

OUR GUARANTEE—We guarantee the reliability of every display advertiser in this paper, and agree to make good to every paid subscriber any loss that may occur through trusting a display advertiser who proves to be a deliberate swindler. Notice of the complaint must be sent within a month of the time of the transaction, and you must mention the Santa Cruz Patagonian when writing the advertiser.

NATIONAL HIGHWAYS
ASSOCIATION
Newspaper Association Member
No. 1706

AFTER THE NON TAXABLES

The federal treasury department is said to have a new plan for getting at securities which are exempt from the income tax. The idea is to impose heavier taxes on inheritances which are in the form of tax-exempt securities.

This, it is believed, would not only increase the government's revenue but would drive big fortunes once more into constructive enterprises. The plan is inspired by the fact that large inheritances nowadays are usually found to consist mainly of untaxed bonds.

It may be a good suggestion. At any rate, it is worth discussing, in view of the general dissatisfaction with a system which makes so many large fortunes virtually immune from bearing their just share of public expense. Yet it serves once more to call attention to the inquiry, made often by reputable lawyers, as to why the government does not make a serious effort to apply the present income tax to all state and municipal bonds, inasmuch as the income tax amendment to the constitution provides that the federal government may tax incomes "from whatever source derived."

FEDERAL CONTROL OF OIL

Warning oil men that state regulation of their business is imminent because of the wasteful production methods, C. W. Marland at the International Petroleum Exposition and Congress held in Tulsa, Okla., said that leaders in the industry must immediately take steps to intelligent use over the nation's oil resources.

"I fear we must face the possibility of state control of production," he said. "The land owners of Oklahoma and other producing states probably will not long continue to permit such foolish waste of their property by their lessees as has been seen this year."

Declaring that overproduction in every new field is a natural result of present system of unregulated competition between operators, Mr. Marland said he believed one approach to solution was "intelligent and uniform restriction of purchases from flowing wells," and to that end he suggested legislation permitting purchasers and carriers to enter into agreements regarding pricing during periods of overproduction."

WORLD SILVER MARKET

There have been changes in world silver markets during the last few weeks in which New York has assumed greater importance.

New York has been for several weeks a more important silver market than London was because Indian buyers realized for the first time that the primary market was in this country and not in the British center.

To insist that London exchange rates determine the basis of Chinese exchange is absurd and simply shows that these authorities are arguing from the past.

The object of the new Silver Export Association is to secure better prices

MICKIE SAYS—

A GOOD RECIPE FOR SUCCESS IS TO TAKE A BUSINESS
OPENING, FILL IT BRIMFULL OF ENTERPRISE AND SERVICE,
ADD A DASH OF NERVE AND SEASON WITH PRINTERS' INK, MIXED WITH BRAINS, IT'S BETTERIN' SOUNDS!

GARLIC
SUSANNE

SKOKUM'S FRIEND IN JESUS

What a friend we have in Jesus

All our sins and griefs to bear

What a privilege to carry

Everything to God in prayer

If the master basket's empty

Like a Christian, don't despair

Which is best—have coin to till it

Or take it to the house of prayer

Have we trials and temptations

Is there trouble anywhere?

Oh, then do not be discouraged!

Take it to the Lord in prayer

But trust in twenty-fourth pieces

They will buy you food to eat

For we know that faith in Jesus

Puts no shoes upon your feet

But don't lose your faith in Jesus

Let it grow from day to day

Be goodly yourself with green boughs

When a note falls due to pay

God will pass instead of prayers

Goes at par most anywhere

Christians love to hear it jingle

Even in the house of prayer

Women, don't lose faith in Jesus

How shall priest and preacher live?

When shall cut the young sprout

Dainty fed you always give?

Who shall tell us of heaven?

That they claim to know about

If you lose your faith in Jesus

It will let the whole pack up

— Fred W. Fletcher

The Young Wife The new wife is very识别的. She never left anyone else's baby when she's around

The Husband Who would?

The next day the nurse left one for the disposal of those products representing more than two-thirds of the total yearly production.

The London Financial News, after belittling the importance of silver, makes the following appeal:

"The international position of the London money market would suffer a heavy loss through the abandonment of its supremacy in silver. The loss of the control over silver by silver exchange would endanger British trade in the Far East."

W. D. Gray, Batesville, Ark., writes
as follows:

"I purchased several cases of RAT
SNAP from Erwin Craig Hardware
Company, this place, and feel safe the most effective exterminator of mice and rats I have ever used. As far as I have noted, there is no other connected with use of RAT-SNAP. This is the testimonial I have ever given for any preparation of any kind.
I feel after using your RAT-SNAP it is worthy of commendation." These sizes, 25¢, 65¢, and $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Patagonia Drug Store and Evans Mercantile Co.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION

(052522)

Department of the Interior, U. S. Land
Office at Phoenix, Arizona, November

1, 1923.

NOTICE is hereby given that Henry

T. Lovell, San Antonio, Texas, one of and for the heirs of Michael T. Lovell, deceased, who, on December 5, 1922, made Homestead Entry, No. 62289, in Section 27, Township 20, Range 8 E., G. & F. R. Metcalf, less than notice of intention to make Three Year Plan to establish claim to the and above described, before Jacob R.

Charles, County Clerk, of San Antonio,
Texas, on the 15th day of December, 1922, and for the following wills to submit their testimony before W. A.
O'Connor, U. S. Commissioner, No.
100, Arizona, on the same date.

Claimant names are witnesses: Mrs.

Bethany Wallace Rowland, Beaufort, South

Carolina; Alberta Diamondfield,

Victor J. Wheeler, Both of Nogales, Ariz.

John B. Towles, Register,

First publication November 9, 1923;

fifth publication December 9, 1923.

Leave Nogales 9 a.m. Arrive Patagonia 10:30 a.m.

Leave Patagonia 11 a.m. Arrive Nogales 12:30 p.m.

Leave Nogales 5 p.m. Arrive Patagonia 6:30 p.m.

Leave Patagonia 7 p.m. Arrive Nogales 8:30 p.m.

Auto Stage leaves on Schedule Time at Montezuma Hotel, Nogales, and from the Patagonia Drug Company, Patagonia.

The object of the new Silver Export

Association is to secure better prices

for the convenience, comfortability

and convenience of the people.

Leave Nogales 9 a.m. Arrive Patagonia 10:30 a.m.

Leave Patagonia 11 a.m. Arrive Nogales 12:30 p.m.

Leave Nogales 5 p.m. Arrive Patagonia 6:30 p.m.

Leave Patagonia 7 p.m. Arrive Nogales 8:30 p.m.

Auto Stage leaves on Schedule Time at Montezuma Hotel, Nogales, and from the Patagonia Drug Company, Patagonia.

The object of the new Silver Export

Association is to secure better prices

for the convenience, comfortability

and convenience of the people.

Leave Nogales 9 a.m. Arrive Patagonia 10:30 a.m.

Leave Patagonia 11 a.m. Arrive Nogales 12:30 p.m.

Leave Nogales 5 p.m. Arrive Patagonia 6:30 p.m.

Leave Patagonia 7 p.m. Arrive Nogales 8:30 p.m.

Auto Stage leaves on Schedule Time at Montezuma Hotel, Nogales, and from the Patagonia Drug Company, Patagonia.

The object of the new Silver Export

Association is to secure better prices

for the convenience, comfortability

and convenience of the people.

Leave Nogales 9 a.m. Arrive Patagonia 10:30 a.m.

Leave Patagonia 11 a.m. Arrive Nogales 12:30 p.m.

Leave Nogales 5 p.m. Arrive Patagonia 6:30 p.m.

Leave Patagonia 7 p.m. Arrive Nogales 8:30 p.m.

Auto Stage leaves on Schedule Time at Montezuma Hotel, Nogales, and from the Patagonia Drug Company, Patagonia.

The object of the new Silver Export

Association is to secure better prices

THE SANTA CRUZ PATAGONIAN

Roy & Titcomb
Incorporated
NOGALES, ARIZONA
MACHINERY AND SUPPLIES for the Miner and Prospector

Exclusive Sales Agents in Santa Cruz County for the International Harvester Company's line of Agricultural Machinery.

Auto Supplies, Tires and Accessories

Exclusive Jobbers for
BADGER LINE OF TIRES AND TUBES

Badger Tires Sold in Patagonia by Patagonia Ice & Light Plant

Staple & Fancy Groceries
Hardware of All Kinds

Wholesale and Retail

MAY BE HAD AT ALL TIMES

at

EVANS MERCANTILE CO

Patagonia's Up-to-Date Store

NO newspaper can succeed without advertising, therefore we solicit the patronage of our readers for those who by their advertising help to make this paper possible.

B. P. O. E.
NOGALES LODGE NO. 1397
Meets second and fourth Tuesdays of each month at Elks' Home on Monterey Ave. Visiting brothers always welcome.

R. M. COUSER, Exalted Ruler.
ROBERT E. LEE, Secretary.

WASHINGTON
TRADING CO.

DRY GOODS
SHOES
MEN'S LEATHER SLEEVES
SHEEP LINED COATS
AND VESTS
"TOWERS" SLICKERS
12 OZ. CANVAS—48 inches wide
LADIES' SWEATERS
FANCY PURSES AND VANITY
CASES
"EIFFEL" SILK HOSE

Washington
Trading Co.

Patagonia, Arizona.

Some Time

You will be in need of printing of some kind. Whether it be letterheads, statements wedding invitations or public sale bills, remember we can turn out the work at the lowest cost consistent with good work.

BEFORE IMPROVING PROPERTY be sure your title is clear. Title to much land in Nogales, Patagonia and other parts of this county is cloudy.

SANTA CRUZ COUNTY ABSTRACT AND TITLE COMPANY

F. A. French, Mgr.

Nogales Arizona

Dr. W. F. Chenoweth
Physician and Surgeon
Nogales, Arizona

Hugo W. Miller Chas. N. Cox
MILLER & COX
Assayers---Engineers
Purchasers of Ore and Bullion
Metallurgical Tests, Mine Examinations, Reports and Surveys; Maps and Blue Prints.
Phone 152; P. O. Box 277
NOGALES ARIZONA

We Sell
BUILDERS' HARDWARE,
LUMBER, PAINTS,
LIME AND CEMENT

We Are Also Agents for
U. S. WINDMILLS
MODEL B.

PATAGONIA LUMBER COMPANY
A. D. SYDENHAM, Manager

COPPER MARKET ON JUMP, SAYS "CARROLL OF CARROLLTON" NEW YORK AUTHORITY

Beacons, Nov. 7. There is no excess production of copper and the output is normal or below normal, according to a telegram received by Rice & Co. of this city from Logan & Bryan, New York brokers, who quote special authority who made a special investigation of the copper situation recently.

The copper consumption is satisfactory, the authority says, according to Logan & Bryan, who state that when the October exemption figures are made public, a quantity considerably in excess of production will be shown which will tend to increase the market price of the metal.

The New York brokers also state they have inquiries for from 15,000,000 to 25,000,000 pounds of copper at the market price of 12½ cents a pound and no offer on the part of producers to accept the business.

Stock brokers, say the New York brokers, think the copper stocks have hit bottom and are beginning to rise.

The situation, say copper authorities, is nothing like it was three years ago, when there was a surplus of 1,000,000 pounds in excess of the demand.

Saved

Mother—Sonny, you've been fighting again? You've lost four front teeth?

Sonny (taking a little package from his pocket): No, I ain't, mother; here they are. Ex.

Why People Buy Rat-Snap in Preference to Rat Poison

(1) RAT-SNAP absolutely kills rats and mice. (2) What it doesn't kill it scares away. (3) Rats filled with RAT-SNAP leave no smell, they dry up inside. (4) Made in cakes, no mice mix up with other feed. (5) Cakes of sugar won't touch it. Three sizes, 5¢, 10¢, 25¢. Sold and guaranteed by Evans Mercantile Co. and Patagonia Drug Store.

LUDEN'S
MENTHOL COUGH DROPS
for nose and throat
Give Quick Relief

PIGGLY WIGGLY

NOGALES, ARIZONA

FRESH, SOUND MERCHANDISE CANNOT BE SOLD FOR LESS THAN PIGGY WIGGLY PRICES.

WHAT WOULD YOU BE PAYING FOR GROCERIES TODAY IF THERE WERE NO PIGGY WIGGLY?

Sugar, 10 pounds	$1.05
Sugar, 100 pounds	$10.00
RICE, Fancy Blue Rose, pound	8c
COFFEE, Green, Fancy Charcoal, pound	25c
YOUR LUCK COFFEE, 1 pound tins	32c
BOB WHITE SOAP, each	4c
P. & G. NAPTHA SOAP, each	4½c
VIRGINIA STYLE BACON, pound	20c
DROMEDARY DATES, new crop, pkg	20c
Currants, package	25c
SUN MAID SEEDLESS RAISINS, 15-oz. package	18c
SUN MAID SEEDED RAISINS, 11-ounce package	14c
CITRON, pound	65c
LEMON AND ORANGE PEEL, pound	35c
LARGE ARIZONA GRAPEFRUIT, each	5c

FANCY WINESAP, DELICIOUS, JONATHANS, PEARMAINES and KING DAVID APPLES; BANANAS,
LEMONS, ORANGES, LETTUCE,
CELERY, TOMATOES.

Our new Dried Fruits, Raisins, Dates, Figs, Mince Meat, Nuts, and many other seasonable items are now in at PIGGY WIGGLY Every-Day Prices.

Over 1000 Items on PIGGY WIGGLY shelves at a saving to you!

NARROW ESCAPE FROM TIGER

Hunter in Fight Shot Animal Twice the Hours While Bare-Handed Saved by Friends

The most terrible experience ever came arrives in India, Bengal, W. A. Kramer, was that of a snake which I have forgotten, though I remember the name of his associate Mr. Evans.

To make certain his identity, he added "Carrollton" to his signature, thus distinguishing himself from another by using the name of his family mansion.

In 1775 Carroll became a member of the "Committee on Observation" at Annapolis, and in the same year was chosen member of the provincial convention. In 1776 he was one of the commissioners sent to Canada to persuade Canada to join the war of independence. He was elected to the Continental Congress in 1777, and with the other members signed the Declaration of Independence August 2 of the following year.

After many more years of important public service to the state of Maryland and to the new republic as author of the Maryland constitution, state senator, and a member of the Maryland and Virginia boundary commission, in 1804 he withdrew to private life at Carrollton, which was his patriarchal estate. There, as his life advanced, he became an object of universal sympathy. July 4, 1828, he drove the space that marked the beginning of American railroads. —Detroit News.

AUTHOR HONORED BY NATIVES

Samoa Ordered Not to Fire Gun Within Earshot of Robert Louis Stevenson's Grave

James Chalmers, English Papuan missionary, who was killed and eaten by cannibals at Gooribar, met Robert Louis Stevenson on a Pacific steamer boat when the novelist was fleeing to Samoa to escape death from tuberculosis. After meeting Chalmers, Stevenson was always an off-and-on devotee of foreign missions. "Perhaps that masterpiece of philippines that Stevenson wrote Arthur Porritt, in "The Last I Remember."

All the time he was in Samoa Stevenson was the friend of the missionaries, and he took their views as to the proper treatment of the natives.

Now that he is dead the Samoans re-peel Stevenson's memory by a beautiful regulation. "By order of the chiefs no native must discharge a gun within earshot of Vailima," says Mr. Porritt, "lest the birds that sing around poor R. L. S.'s lonely grave might be frightened and suspend their repose." —Detroit News.

ESKIMOS TAKE CARE OF OLD

Elderly Council Always Considered—Mutual Kindness the Rule in Arctic.

Old people are a great respect among the Eskimos and their care is always considered. They keep old people alive in the winter, and the old men help the young in getting out of the earth and from the snow. The old people are the ones who take care of the children, as it would be difficult for them to care for themselves.

There is a lot of stories heard in the old country about the Eskimos being savages, but this is not true. They are a simple, honest people, who do not care for money, and are very kind to their old people.

Another interesting point about the Eskimos is that they never take their old people into their houses and family circle or let them eat with the rest of the family. The old woman gives her services in return for food and clothing and cleaning and the child is cared for exactly as the man's own offspring. —Detroit News.

Near Tragedy

At the end of last week the Little Sisters got out of their school ship because of a typhoon which had driven them into the harbor of San Francisco. They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

They were to have been at sea for 10 days.

1—Painting the anchors of the new U. S. S. Colorado, which weighs 39,000 pounds. 2—Interior view of the "Central kitchen" of Berlin where food for the poor is prepared. 3—Building in Christiania, Norway, just acquired by the United States for the legation.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Poincare Accepts the Hughes Plan for Committee of Experts, With Reservations.

GERMAN ROYALISTS MOBILIZE

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

SOLUTION of the German reparations problem, which in large measure is the economic and financial problem of all Europe, is now within the bounds of possibility if not probability. Secretary Hughes' suggestion of a committee of experts is likely to be adopted, with some modifications. Assured by Washington that the United States would participate in an advisory capacity, Great Britain asked France whether she would agree to the plan, and Premier Poincare's reply was prompt and as satisfactory as could well be expected. In a public speech, a proclamation and notes to London, he accepted the proposals in principle, but insisted the findings of the experts must be only advisory in character and relating only to the present capacity of Germany to pay, and should not be necessarily binding on either the reparations commission or the governments concerned. The selection of the experts, except the American, he said, should be made by the reparations commission. In his speech he also declared France would not permit a discussion of a reduction in the reparations total fixed in May, 1921, at $32,000,000,000, or a suggestion for an abandonment of the guarantees.

With these restrictions, M. Poincare consented to join in an invitation to the United States to send representatives to the conference of experts. At first the English were disappointed and angry, but the government decided to accept the French reservations. There is no reason to believe any other of the nations concerned will object to the plan.

The reparations commission, on motion of Sir John Bradbury, English, ruled that no one of the nations had the right to dictate as to the competence or to define or limit the jurisdiction of the commission in dealing with the problem of the German indemnity. This might permit the overriding of the French reservations, and even the discussion of the interrelated debts so far as they affect reparations.

Poincare's reservations are not held by the administration at Washington to be a bar to the execution of the Hughes plan and our part in putting it into operation is under way. The Europeans would like to see an American made chairman of the committee of experts, and would prefer J. P. Morgan, Roland Boyden or Paul Cravath.

It may be Mr. Morgan would not serve, and there is talk of the selection of Elihu Root. Washington has made it plain to the allies that by participation in the conference we accept no responsibility for the enforcing of its terms.

Meanwhile, the German industrial magnates and General Degoutte have been in conference trying to arrange for resumption of work in the Ruhr and of the payment of reparations in kind. If the accord is signed it will provide that the German government shall pay the industrialists for damages to France, beginning next spring.

At this writing the Germans have yielded to almost all the French demands except restrictions of their rights to free trade with unoccupied Germany and the rest of the world. Krupp von Bohlen was paroled from prison to take part in the conferences. On Thursday he signed the accord.

DISPATCHES from Germany insist that Chancellor Stresemann's government is "tettering on the brink." The Socialists are still threatening to quit him, and the monarchists are trying to bring about a dictatorship for the whole country with the ultimate purpose, presumably, of restoring the empire. This movement is fostered especially by the Bavarians, and toward the end of the week it was reported that they had mobilized between 20,000 and 30,000 troops along the Thuringian frontier for a march on Berlin, that reinforcements were flocking to the royalist colors from all sides and that 15,000 Bavarian reichswehr at Bamberg were ready to join. This body of reichswehr troops was "kidnapped" from the central government by Bavaria and she stubbornly refuses the demands of Stresemann that they be restored. Socialists in the Berlin cabinet rage at Stresemann for what they consider his mildness toward Bavaria, but he refused to press action against Munich until he had settled his troubles with the Saxon government. That he appears to be doing, for the Saxon cabinet retired from office at his demand and another ministry was formed exclusively of Socialists. This has offended the more radical Socialists.

In various parts of the Rhineland the separatists held out against the attacks of the police, the workers and the Socialists, but they did not make much headway. The British government announced that it would not countenance the establishment of an independent republic within the borders of Germany since the allies in the treaty of Versailles had guaranteed the integrity of German territory. M. Poincare in reply denied that either France or Belgium had given the separatists assistance and said the Rhineland republic was developing as freely without encouragement as without hindrance.

Former Crown Prince Friedrich Wilhelm has asked permission of the Dutch government to return to Germany. Holland does not object but would not permit him to return again to that country. It is said the German government will allow the ex-prince to go home provided he lives quietly on his estate in Silesia. Whether his request has any connection with the royalist movement is a question.

BY VOTE of the Angora assembly Turkey was declared a republic last week, and Mustapha Kemal was elected its first president. Ismet Pasha was appointed premier and formed a cabinet. Great Britain has asked Turkey to open pourparlers on the Mosul question, and it is said both the British and the French are offering the Turks loans and concessions in the effort to obtain the things which they failed to get by diplomacy at Lausanne.

The reparations commission, on motion of Sir John Bradbury, English, ruled that no one of the nations had the right to dictate as to the competence or to define or limit the jurisdiction of the commission in dealing with the problem of the German indemnity. This might permit the overriding of the French reservations, and even the discussion of the interrelated debts so far as they affect reparations.

Poincare's reservations are not held by the administration at Washington to be a bar to the execution of the Hughes plan and our part in putting it into operation is under way. The Europeans would like to see an American made chairman of the committee of experts, and would prefer J. P. Morgan, Roland Boyden or Paul Cravath.

It may be Mr. Morgan would not serve, and there is talk of the selection of Elihu Root. Washington has made it plain to the allies that by participation in the conference we accept no responsibility for the enforcing of its terms.

Meanwhile, the German industrial magnates and General Degoutte have been in conference trying to arrange for resumption of work in the Ruhr and of the payment of reparations in kind. If the accord is signed it will provide that the German government shall pay the industrialists for damages to France, beginning next spring.

At this writing the Germans have yielded to almost all the French demands except restrictions of their rights to free trade with unoccupied Germany and the rest of the world. Krupp von Bohlen was paroled from prison to take part in the conferences. On Thursday he signed the accord.

DISPATCHES from Germany insist that Chancellor Stresemann's government is "tettering on the brink." The Socialists are still threatening to quit him, and the monarchists are trying to bring about a dictatorship for the whole country with the ultimate purpose, presumably, of restoring the empire. This movement is fostered especially by the Bavarians, and

NEWS TO DATE IN PARAGRAPHS

CAUGHT FROM THE NETWORK OF WIRES ROUND ABOUT THE WORLD

DURING THE PAST WEEK

RECORD OF IMPORTANT EVENTS CONDENSED FOR BUSY PEOPLE

WESTERN

Responding to a call that later proved to be a false alarm, a fire truck at Everett, Wash., collided with Fire Chief W. A. Taro's car, killing two persons and injuring seven others, one probably fatally.

An alleged plot to plunder the Western Wholesale Drug Company at Los Angeles by tunneling under the building and breaking through the steel and concrete floor of the vault was revealed by police.

Sheriff T. A. Bliford of Houston, Texas, killed two birds with one stone when he came to Los Angeles to arrest W. M. Ward, wanted in Houston for forging warehouse receipts, and after arresting Ward, unexpectedly encountered Mike Motranga, also wanted in Houston for the kidnaping of a 15-year-old girl.

A new production record for this season was reached by the canning plants in the Alaska-British Columbia and Puget Sound districts, according to a report of estimates of the B.C. pack, prepared and issued by the National Canners' Association. The total pack in the three districts is estimated at 7,000,000 cases.

Announcement was made in Seattle by P. M. Brown, assistant general counsel for the Emergency Fleet Corporation, that the United States government will file a suit in Seattle soon against Skinner and Eddy Corporation, and Puget Sound Shippers, to recover between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000 for alleged overpay on work done for the government.

Short Bob, a full-blooded Klamath Indian, 80 years of age, has brought suit for divorce at Klamath Falls, Ore., against Mrs. Short Bob, his wife, 78, alleging extreme cruelty. According to the octogenarian, his spouse struck him on the head with an iron rod and then drove him out of their wickup at Chiloquin and he was forced to seek shelter with a neighboring Indian.

Production of new motion pictures by the Universal Pictures Corporation will be as soon as negatives being filmed are completed, it was announced in San Francisco by President Carl Laemmle of the company. About 50,000 persons in the company's southern California organization will be thrown out of employment, he said. Laemmle's announcement followed a similar one by the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation.

Attorney General Diskin of Reno has begun an investigation of the case of Angelo Chicca, an Italian, 48 years old, who refuses to leave the Nevada state penitentiary from which he has been imported. Chicca asserts that he was wrongfully convicted of burglary at Yerington, Nev., four years ago and says that he will not accept freedom until the court which convicted him reverses itself and frees his name from a dishonorable stain.

Attorney General Diskin of Reno was appointed by Secretary Work to be manager of the Minidoka project in Idaho with headquarters at Burley. The project is one of the largest under government operation.

The Interior Department ordered the offering for lease of 500 acres of public coal lands in Garfield County, Colo., at a government royalty of 10 cents a ton.

Senator Willis of Ohio has accepted the chairmanship of the Middle West foreign trade and merchant marine committee and will preside at the farmers and manufacturers' conference, to be held in Omaha in December.

President Coolidge believes that provision to allow British ships to bring liquor stores within the three-mile limit, which has been proposed as a part of the arrangement with Great Britain for extension of the right of search and seizure to the twelve-mile limit, might be made effective through a treaty.

Statistics just completed by the internal revenue bureau for the year 1921 show that taxes were paid to the federal government on but one net income of $5,000,000 or more. That income was not reported by John D. Rockefeller. In fact, if statistics count for anything the net income turned in by Mr. Rockefeller for 1921 was only somewhere between $1,000,000 and $1,500,000.

The parcel post in the first ten years of its existence has brought into the Postoffice Department revenues totaling about $1,100,000,000. In 1921 alone, department records show, 1,071,000,000 packages weighing from a few ounces to seventy pounds were carried in the mails as parcel post. In the first year, 1913, the total was 417,000,000.

In the presence of President Coolidge, a host of officials and representatives of all Masonic organizations, the corner stone of the great Masonic memorial to George Washington was laid at Alexandria, Va., Thursday. The temple, which will be of Greek architecture, will cost $14,000,000 and will be a shrine for American Freemasonry in which will be preserved many relics of the Father of His Country.

As an expression of its gratitude for America's help at the time of the recent earthquake, Japan has offered to the United States a perpetual lease on a two-acre estate adjoining the site of our embassy in Tokyo which was destroyed. Ambassador Woods is on his way home with the offer and plans for a fine new building.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

As an expression of its gratitude for America's help at the time of the recent earthquake, Japan has offered to the United States a perpetual lease on a two-acre estate adjoining the site of our embassy in Tokyo which was destroyed. Ambassador Woods is on his way home with the offer and plans for a fine new building.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

As an expression of its gratitude for America's help at the time of the recent earthquake, Japan has offered to the United States a perpetual lease on a two-acre estate adjoining the site of our embassy in Tokyo which was destroyed. Ambassador Woods is on his way home with the offer and plans for a fine new building.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

Preliminary study of the plans for reorganization of the executive departments of the government as worked out by a commission headed by Walter F. Brown, was completed by President Coolidge and his cabinet.

DENVER BUSINESS DIRECTORY

SPECIAL RUSH SERVICE secured if you mention this paper when writing firms below.

BOHM-ALLEN JEWELRY CO.
Mfg. and repairing. All orders promptly attended to. Est. 1879. 16th & Champa.

CLEANERS AND DYERS

GRUND DRY CLEANING
DENVER'S EXPERT DYER
Established TWENTY-FOUR YEARS
GRUND BUILDING, 17TH & LOGAN

DIAMONDS

JOS. L. SCHWARTZ, Jewelry, Diamonds, watch repairing, 1000 Sixteenth Street.

INFORMATION DEPARTMENT

Commercial inquiries answered and information gladly furnished without cost. Address any firm above.

NEW MEXICO LIVE STOCK REPORT FOR OCTOBER

Las Cruces.—The condition of ranges on Oct. 1 were reported at an average for the state of 91 per cent for cattle and 98 per cent for sheep. The condition figures show a constant improvement each month during the year, and for the past month an increase of 9 points over that of Sept. 1, is indicated. With the exception of a few local areas in the southern and central parts of the state, reports indicate an abundance of winter pasture. Many localities have excess and more wild hay is being harvested than for the past several years. Much of the grass was not matured when frost, and its nutritive value is consequently poor.

Condition of cattle for the state was reported at 95 per cent, showing a 10 per cent improvement for the month.

Cattle Movement.—The Cattle Sanitary Board reports the September shipments at 38,712 head. During September, 1922, it amounted to 52,535, but at this time the movement to pastures, as a result of the drought, had begun. The average September movement for 1919-1921 was only 22,800. The heavy movement in August and September in spite of abundance of feed, low prices and light demand, is in part due to forced liquidation of loans.

The shipments were destined as follows: Kansas City, 17,052; Texas, 5,605; Denver, 5,545; Wichita, 2,394; Illinois, 1,462; Omaha, 1,363; Los Angeles, 1,179; St. Joe, 855; Iowa, 765; Oklahoma City, 711; Colorado, 365; Nebraska, 358; Interstate, 255; Kansas, 183; Indiana, 153; Louisiana, 135; El Paso, 92; Arizona, 83; Missouri, 47, and Oklahoma, 18. It is interesting to note that about 75 per cent were sent to large market centers, whereas this amount is only about 37 per cent in September, 1922. About 44 per cent of the September shipment for this year went to Kansas City.

Shipments were made from all counties except Bernardino, McKinley, San Joaquin, San Juan, Sierra, Tuolumne and Calaveras. Some leading counties were Roosvelt, 92; Quay, 5,653; Union, 4,955; Curry, 3,852; De Baca, 2,630; San Miguel, 2,243; Chaves, 2,085, and Lea, 2,071.

Sheep Movement.—The Sheep Sanitary Board report the following shipments for August: Ewes, 446; wethers, 985, and lambs, 452. Of these Chaves county shipped 1,136 to Missouri points, and San Miguel sent 747 to Denver. For September the only movement reported was from Chaves, which sent 922 ewes, and 300 lambs to Colorado points. For nine months this year the movement is reported at 29,003 ewes; 1,235 wethers, and 9,860 lambs.

Forest Fires Decrease

Denver.—Fires in Colorado's national forests to date in 1923 were fifty-seven in number, as against 105 for the same period in 1922, according to figures issued by the Denver office of the United States forest service.

Sugar Prices Are Cut

New York.—A price-cutting movement was started by the big sugar refiners in an effort to stimulate a lagging demand by consumers. Fine granulated was reduced to \$8.60 by one of the leading New York refiners. The cut was generally followed by others, although the latter's list prices ranged from \$8.50 to \$8.85. Prices represent a cut of about  $\frac{1}{2}$  cent and follow a similar reduction in the cost of raw sugar. For some weeks both the raw and the refined markets have been very quiet and it is agreed that refiners are determined to adjust their prices to levels that will meet the competition of western beets, which have been offered as far East as the Albany district.

Butcher Charged With Assault

Greeley.—A complaint was filed against Elmer Nowell, La Salle butcher, charging him with assault with a deadly weapon against the late William Bedell. The complaint was filed before Justice of the Peace W. H. Sanders by Deputy District Attorney Robert G. Smith.

Submarine Suit Closed

Washington.—A judgment for $1,015,272.33 with interest from Jan. 18, 1919, has been rendered by the Court of Claims in favor of the New York and Porto Rico Steamship Company for the value of the steamship "Carolina" which was sunk by a German submarine off the New Jersey coast on June 2, 1918, while Germany's U-boat raids were being carried on along the eastern seaboard of the United States. Passengers and crew escaped in life boats.

OUR COMIC SECTION

Our Pet Peeve*Bosco Was a Slippery Eel*Borrowing Trouble

American Farm Bureau

The photograph shows the senior yearling Holstein heifer, grand champion at Rock county and champion at six fairs—W. G. Miles and champion Shropshire ewe—Marvin Helgesen and champion calf, and J. C. Nesbit, live stock agent of the Rock county farm bureau.

Farm bureau members of Rock county, Wisconsin, have a slogan—"Rock County First."

To be first in agriculture is the objective of the 4,000 farmers of this southern Wisconsin county, having one of the largest farm bureau memberships in the United States. Through bureau co-operation Rock county farmers put over a unique venture in the exhibiting of farm products on a circuit of fairs and interstate dairy expositions. At the recent Wisconsin state fair—"the dairy classic of the West"—Rock county, as a result of this co-operative effort, backed by the bureau, won the county sweepstakes championship awarded to the county scoring the most premium awards and won first prize on the number of ribbons won. The county show herd plan of exhibiting live stock has been successfully carried out in Rock county.

Bureau Put Over Project.

Practical farmers oftentimes do not have the time, nor can they spare the money to properly fit, train and exhibit stock beyond their local fairs. The Rock county farm bureau put over a project of collecting 12 carloads of cattle, swine and sheep from the county to be shown under the county's name. There were 75 head of cattle in the exhibit, the largest collection of blooded stock ever sent out of any one county on a fair circuit.

The bureau employed J. C. Nisher, a master showman and herdsman, to have full charge of the exhibit. A fund was created to bring in the stock.

HONOR FOR JOHNNY DAWSON

Cherokee County, Iowa, Youth Wine Championship With Steer at Sioux City.

Winning the championship in the second largest Baby Beef club in the world is the honor that has come to Johnny Dawson of Wauhita, Iowa—Cherokee county.

His Angus steer was the outstanding animal of two hundred and fourteen head shown at the recent Interstate fair of Sioux City.

Johnny Dawson and His Champion

Cherokee county, according to Glenn A. Ellis, county agent, has done consistent Baby Beef club work for several years and has won two firsts and a second at Sioux City in the last four years in addition to the winning the reduced rates.

Dates on which certificates may be secured with purchase of tickets are for the central states, Dec. 4 to 14 inclusive. In Colorado, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico and Wyoming, Dec. 3 to 9, and from Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon and Washington, Dec. 1 to 7. In all cases the rate for the return trip is good until Dec. 14.

This generous provision allows any one to reach Chicago in time to see most of the International Live Stock exposition and be here the following week for the convention. But those from the central states are urged to get their certificates and not come in to the special excursion rate in order to the International Live Stock exposition, which rate does not permit a stopover for the A. F. B. C. convention.

Arrangements have been made with the railroads for reduced round trip passenger fares applying from ad-points in the United States to Chicago, for the annual convention of the A. F. B. C., to be held December 10-14 inclusively.

The "certificate plan" used for the past two years will be in effect again this year and in this connection a few words of warning are issued.

In order to secure the reduced fare into Chicago, a certificate must be requested at the time the ticket is bought.

Last year many people forgot to ask for a certificate at the time they bought their ticket, and these people lost the reduced fare privilege. Beside this, failure to secure certificate jeopardizes the granting of the special rate to all as a minimum of 20 certificates are necessary to secure the reduced rates.

Dates on which certificates may be secured with purchase of tickets are for the central states, Dec. 4 to 14 inclusive. In Colorado, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico and Wyoming, Dec. 3 to 9, and from Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon and Washington, Dec. 1 to 7. In all cases the rate for the return trip is good until Dec. 14.

This generous provision allows any one to reach Chicago in time to see most of the International Live Stock exposition and be here the following week for the convention. But those from the central states are urged to get their certificates and not come in to the special excursion rate in order to the International Live Stock exposition, which rate does not permit a stopover for the A. F. B. C. convention.

Arrangements have been made with the railroads for reduced round trip passenger fares applying from ad-

points in the United States to Chicago, for the annual convention of the A. F. B. C., to be held December 10-14 inclusively.

The "certificate plan" used for the past two years will be in effect again this year and in this connection a few words of warning are issued.

In order to secure the reduced fare into Chicago, a certificate must be requested at the time the ticket is bought.

Last year many people forgot to ask for a certificate at the time they bought their ticket, and these people lost the reduced fare privilege.

Beside this, failure to secure certificate jeopardizes the granting of the special rate to all as a minimum of 20 certificates are necessary to secure the reduced rates.

Dates on which certificates may be secured with purchase of tickets are for the central states, Dec. 4 to 14 inclusive. In Colorado, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico and Wyoming, Dec. 3 to 9, and from Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon and Washington, Dec. 1 to 7. In all cases the rate for the return trip is good until Dec. 14.

This generous provision allows any one to reach Chicago in time to see most of the International Live Stock exposition and be here the following week for the convention. But those from the central states are urged to get their certificates and not come in to the special excursion rate in order to the International Live Stock exposition, which rate does not permit a stopover for the A. F. B. C. convention.

Arrangements have been made with the railroads for reduced round trip passenger fares applying from ad-

points in the United States to Chicago, for the annual convention of the A. F. B. C., to be held December 10-14 inclusively.

The "certificate plan" used for the past two years will be in effect again this year and in this connection a few words of warning are issued.

In order to secure the reduced fare into Chicago, a certificate must be requested at the time the ticket is bought.

Last year many people forgot to ask for a certificate at the time they bought their ticket, and these people lost the reduced fare privilege.

Beside this, failure to secure certificate jeopardizes the granting of the special rate to all as a minimum of 20 certificates are necessary to secure the reduced rates.

Dates on which certificates may be secured with purchase of tickets are for the central states, Dec. 4 to 14 inclusive. In Colorado, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico and Wyoming, Dec. 3 to 9, and from Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon and Washington, Dec. 1 to 7. In all cases the rate for the return trip is good until Dec. 14.

This generous provision allows any one to reach Chicago in time to see most of the International Live Stock exposition and be here the following week for the convention. But those from the central states are urged to get their certificates and not come in to the special excursion rate in order to the International Live Stock exposition, which rate does not permit a stopover for the A. F. B. C. convention.

Arrangements have been made with the railroads for reduced round trip passenger fares applying from ad-

points in the United States to Chicago, for the annual convention of the A. F. B. C., to be held December 10-14 inclusively.

The "certificate plan" used for the past two years will be in effect again this year and in this connection a few words of warning are issued.

In order to secure the reduced fare into Chicago, a certificate must be requested at the time the ticket is bought.

Last year many people forgot to ask for a certificate at the time they bought their ticket, and these people lost the reduced fare privilege.

Beside this, failure to secure certificate jeopardizes the granting of the special rate to all as a minimum of 20 certificates are necessary to secure the reduced rates.

Dates on which certificates may be secured with purchase of tickets are for the central states, Dec. 4 to 14 inclusive. In Colorado, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico and Wyoming, Dec. 3 to 9, and from Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon and Washington, Dec. 1 to 7. In all cases the rate for the return trip is good until Dec. 14.

This generous provision allows any one to reach Chicago in time to see most of the International Live Stock exposition and be here the following week for the convention. But those from the central states are urged to get their certificates and not come in to the special excursion rate in order to the International Live Stock exposition, which rate does not permit a stopover for the A. F. B. C. convention.

Arrangements have been made with the railroads for reduced round trip passenger fares applying from ad-

points in the United States to Chicago, for the annual convention of the A. F. B. C., to be held December 10-14 inclusively.

The "certificate plan" used for the past two years will be in effect again this year and in this connection a few words of warning are issued.

In order to secure the reduced fare into Chicago, a certificate must be requested at the time the ticket is bought.

Last year many people forgot to ask for a certificate at the time they bought their ticket, and these people lost the reduced fare privilege.

Beside this, failure to secure certificate jeopardizes the granting of the special rate to all as a minimum of 20 certificates are necessary to secure the reduced rates.

Dates on which certificates may be secured with purchase of tickets are for the central states, Dec. 4 to 14 inclusive. In Colorado, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico and Wyoming, Dec. 3 to 9, and from Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon and Washington, Dec. 1 to 7. In all cases the rate for the return trip is good until Dec. 14.

This generous provision allows any one to reach Chicago in time to see most of the International Live Stock exposition and be here the following week for the convention. But those from the central states are urged to get their certificates and not come in to the special excursion rate in order to the International Live Stock exposition, which rate does not permit a stopover for the A. F. B. C. convention.

Arrangements have been made with the railroads for reduced round trip passenger fares applying from ad-

points in the United States to Chicago, for the annual convention of the A. F. B. C., to be held December 10-14 inclusively.

The "certificate plan" used for the past two years will be in effect again this year and in this connection a few words of warning are issued.

In order to secure the reduced fare into Chicago, a certificate must be requested at the time the ticket is bought.

Last year many people forgot to ask for a certificate at the time they bought their ticket, and these people lost the reduced fare privilege.

LEGALS*NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL PROPERTY

In the Superior Court of Santa Cruz County, State of Arizona

Washington Trading Company, a corporation, plaintiff, vs. Mary Kane, individually and as administratrix of the estate of James Kane, deceased.

Under and by virtue of an execution and order of sale issued out of the Superior Court of Santa Cruz County, State of Arizona, in an action wherein Washington Trading Company, a corporation, was plaintiff, and Mary Kane, individually and as the administratrix of the estate of James Kane, deceased, was defendant, upon a judgment rendered on the 17th day of October, 1923, in favor of said plaintiff and against said defendant, for the sum of Seven Hundred and 50/100 Dollars ($700.50), current lawful money of the United States of America, with interest and costs, I have this day levied upon all right, title, claim and interest of said defendant in and to the following described property, to-wit: An undivided one-third interest in and to those certain mines or mining claims located and situated in the Tynall Mining District, Santa Cruz County, Arizona, known as and called, the Tin Juana, Santa Cruz and Santa Maria. The amended location notices of which said mining claims are recorded in the office of the County Recorder of said Santa Cruz County, in Book Seven (7) of Mining Locations, at Pages 372, 373, and 375, respectively, to which record reference is hereby made for greater certainty and particularity.

Notice is hereby given that I will, on the 22nd day of November, 1923, at 11:00 o'clock A. M. of said day, at the Court House door in Nogales, Santa Cruz County, State of Arizona, sell at public auction, for current lawful money of the United States of America, all the right, title, claim and interest of said defendant in and to the above described property, or as much said judgment, with interest and costs, thereof as may be necessary to satisfy

DR. M. A. WUERSCHMIDT

Optical Specialist

Arizona Optical Co.

315 Morley Avenue

NOGALES, ARIZONA

NEW QUICK-HAUL SERVICE benefits PETROLEUM USERS

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(California)

In all, we make over 400 petroleum products of quality for the service of Automotive Equipment, Industry, Farm and Home.

A Rat That Didn't Smell After Being Dead for 3 Months

"I swear it was dead at least three months," said James Sykes, Butcher, Westfield, N. J. "We saw this rat every day. Put a cake of RAT-SNAP behind a barrel. Months later my wife asked about the rat. Remembered the barrel, looked behind it. There was the rat—dead, not the slightest odor." Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by Patagonia Drug Store and Evans Mercantile Co.

Spiced and Suspicion

An automobile manufacturer recently received a visit from a party of distinguished tourists, and for their entertainment had a complete car assembled in something like ten minutes. The daily paper published this feat and a few days later the manufacturer received a telephone call asking if it was true that he had assembled a car in ten minutes. "Yes," replied the manufacturer, "Why?" "Oh, nothing," was the calm reply, "only I've got the car."—Vibrator.

AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL WEEK

Governor G. W. P. Hunt has designated Sunday, November 18 as "God and Country Day"; Monday, the 19th, as "American Constitution Day"; Tuesday as "Patriotism Day"; Wednesday as "School and Teacher Day"; Thursday as "Hillbilly Day"; Friday as "Community Day," and Saturday as "Physical Education Day."

The governor's proclamation is at the request of the United States Bureau of Education, acting in cooperation with the National Educational Association and the American Legion, and in conformity with the action of the president of the United States in setting aside the week of November 18 to 24, 1923, to be observed as American Educational Week.

K. K. K. SUIT THROWN OUT

The second amended complaint filed in Maricopa county by McCord Harrison, imperial representative of the Ku Klux Klan in Arizona, in an injunction seeking to restrain the State Fair Commission from permitting the use of parimutuel machines in connection with the racing program at the coming state fair, was dismissed last week by Superior Judge Dudley W. W. Winsor. Dismissal of the complaint followed the sustaining of a demurrer filed by the defense attorneys.

"ROOM BUREAU" AT PHOENIX

For the benefit of visitors a "room bureau" will be maintained at the Phoenix chamber of commerce, Adams street, just west of Second avenue, where a list of rooms will be on file. The office will be open each day from 8 a.m. until midnight during fair week. Hotels and restaurants have been pledged not to raise rates during the fair.

MORE LAND FOR HOMESTEADERS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—Approximately 15,600 acres of public lands in three western states was thrown open last Saturday for homesteading. The tracts include 12,500 acres in Lincoln county, Wyoming; 1750 acres in Routt county, Colorado; and 1300 acres in Apache county, Arizona.

STATE TO JOIN WAR ON DRUGS

A measure to place more stringent regulations on the legal use of narcotics in the state in order to suppress illicit traffic in them in Arizona will be introduced at the next session of the state legislature, according to an announcement made recently by Gov. G. W. P. Hunt in Phoenix.

RATE HEARING ANNOUNCED

Washington, Nov. 8.—Interstate Commerce Commission hearings on railroad rates and grain products will be held at Spokane, Wash., December 2; San Francisco, December 11, and Phoenix, December 18.

Not Yet

"Well! What are you stopping for?" asked the young man as the taxi came to a halt in the middle of the street. "I heard the lady say 'Stop!'" said the driver.

"Well, she wasn't talking to you," exchanged.

GENERAL JOHN C. GREENWAY WEDS MRS. R. H. M. FERGUSON

On November 4, in Santa Barbara, Mrs. R. H. M. Ferguson of Tyrone, N. M., and Santa Barbara, Calif., became the bride of General John C. Greenway of Warren, Ariz. The ceremony took place at the home of Mrs. Ferguson's uncle.

General Greenway is one of the outstanding figures of the southwest. He is general manager of the Calumet & Arizona Mining Co., the New Cornelia Copper Co., the Tucson, Cornelia and Gila Bend railroad, in addition to other things of less importance.

IN MEMORIAM OUTRUNS ZEV

Latonia, Ky., Nov. 3.—In Memoriam, a Kentucky 3-year-old, won the $50,000 Latonia championship stakes today, beating the great Zev, which finished second, and My Own Third. Rialto pulled up in fourth place.

The race was one of the biggest upsets of the year, as Zev, winner of the Kentucky Derby and conqueror of Paupers, was a heavily played favorite. In Memoriam, owned by Carl Wedemann of Newport, Ky., won by four lengths, while Zev finished six lengths ahead of Admiral T. Grayson's My Own.

The winner received a tremendous ovation when Jockey Mack Garner pulled him up in front of the judges' stand. Time: 1:45 4-5 seconds, nearly 6 seconds slower than the American record for the distance.

BAVARIA WANTS DICTATOR

The Bavarian government, it is learned authoritatively, has sent a letter to Stresemann demanding the creation of a dictatorship for Reich based on the Bavarian model, says an Associated Press dispatch, adding that unless the dictatorship is established in Berlin forthwith the Bavarian government intends to send troops against the capital.

Spiced and Suspicion

An automobile manufacturer recently received a visit from a party of distinguished tourists, and for their entertainment had a complete car assembled in something like ten minutes. The daily paper published this feat and a few days later the manufacturer received a telephone call asking if it was true that he had assembled a car in ten minutes. "Yes," replied the manufacturer, "Why?" "Oh, nothing," was the calm reply, "only I've got the car."—Vibrator.

MORE MENNONITES FOR MEXICO

Meantime colonists again are on a long trip from Canada to Mexico and additional settlers in Chihuahua and Durango are expected within three months, according to leaders in charge of a train of approximately 75 members of the cult which arrived here Tuesday.

DE LA HUERTA SUES FOR PEACE

From Mexico City comes the statement that an article appeared recently in the El Demócrata of that city, to the effect that Adolfo de la Huerta and Gen. P. Elias Calles will hold a conference at an early date, at which time factionalism and strife will be dissolved and a working basis for the forthcoming presidential election arranged, if possible.

According to the article, Calles was undecided as to whether to meet De la Huerta on the matter, but later, after correspondence with the former secretary, decided to designate a place and time for a meeting.

CANADIAN TRIMS IOWA HEAVY

Jack Renault, the hard-hitting Canadian heavyweight fighter, lifted himself a notch higher in the heavyweight title contention class last Friday night when he secured a technical knockout of Floyd Johnson of Iowa in the fifteenth round of a spectacular affray in Madison Square Garden, New York. Better Copper Outlook First of Year

Better conditions in the copper industry by the first of next year were predicted in a statement last Saturday by Charles W. Clark, president of the United Verde Copper Co. of Jerome. Commenting on present conditions in mining in Jerome, Mr. Clark said there would be a curtailment in the working forces at the mine.

AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL WEEK

Governor G. W. P. Hunt has designated Sunday, November 18 as "God and Country Day"; Monday, the 19th, as "American Constitution Day"; Tuesday as "Patriotism Day"; Wednesday as "School and Teacher Day"; Thursday as "Community Day," and Saturday as "Physical Education Day."

The governor's proclamation is at the request of the United States Bureau of Education, acting in cooperation with the National Educational Association and the American Legion, and in conformity with the action of the president of the United States in setting aside the week of November 18 to 24, 1923, to be observed as American Educational Week.

K. K. K. SUIT THROWN OUT

The second amended complaint filed in Maricopa county by McCord Harrison, imperial representative of the Ku Klux Klan in Arizona, in an injunction seeking to restrain the State Fair Commission from permitting the use of parimutuel machines in connection with the racing program at the coming state fair, was dismissed last week by Superior Judge Dudley W. W. Winsor. Dismissal of the complaint followed the sustaining of a demurrer filed by the defense attorneys.

"ROOM BUREAU" AT PHOENIX

For the benefit of visitors a "room bureau" will be maintained at the Phoenix chamber of commerce, Adams street, just west of Second avenue, where a list of rooms will be on file. The office will be open each day from 8 a.m. until midnight during fair week. Hotels and restaurants have been pledged not to raise rates during the fair.

MORE LAND FOR HOMESTEADERS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—Approximately 15,600 acres of public lands in three western states was thrown open last Saturday for homesteading. The tracts include 12,500 acres in Lincoln county, Wyoming; 1750 acres in Routt county, Colorado; and 1300 acres in Apache county, Arizona.

STATE TO JOIN WAR ON DRUGS

A measure to place more stringent regulations on the legal use of narcotics in the state in order to suppress illicit traffic in them in Arizona will be introduced at the next session of the state legislature, according to an announcement made recently by Gov. G. W. P. Hunt in Phoenix.

RATE HEARING ANNOUNCED

Washington, Nov. 8.—Interstate Commerce Commission hearings on railroad rates and grain products will be held at Spokane, Wash., December 2; San Francisco, December 11, and Phoenix, December 18.

Not Yet

"Well! What are you stopping for?" asked the young man as the taxi came to a halt in the middle of the street. "I heard the lady say 'Stop!'" said the driver.

"Well, she wasn't talking to you," exchanged.

GENERAL JOHN C. GREENWAY WEDS MRS. R. H. M. FERGUSON

On November 4, in Santa Barbara, Mrs. R. H. M. Ferguson of Tyrone, N. M., and Santa Barbara, Calif., became the bride of General John C. Greenway of Warren, Ariz. The ceremony took place at the home of Mrs. Ferguson's uncle.

DE LA HUERTA SUES FOR PEACE

From Mexico City comes the statement that an article appeared recently in the El Demócrata of that city, to the effect that Adolfo de la Huerta and Gen. P. Elias Calles will hold a conference at an early date, at which time factionalism and strife will be dissolved and a working basis for the forthcoming presidential election arranged, if possible.

According to the article, Calles was undecided as to whether to meet De la Huerta on the matter, but later, after correspondence with the former secretary, decided to designate a place and time for a meeting.

CANADIAN TRIMS IOWA HEAVY

Jack Renault, the hard-hitting Canadian heavyweight fighter, lifted himself a notch higher in the heavyweight title contention class last Friday night when he secured a technical knockout of Floyd Johnson of Iowa in the fifteenth round of a spectacular affray in Madison Square Garden, New York. Better Copper Outlook First of Year

Better conditions in the copper industry by the first of next year were predicted in a statement last Saturday by Charles W. Clark, president of the United Verde Copper Co. of Jerome. Commenting on present conditions in mining in Jerome, Mr. Clark said there would be a curtailment in the working forces at the mine.

AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL WEEK

Governor G. W. P. Hunt has designated Sunday, November 18 as "God and Country Day"; Monday, the 19th, as "American Constitution Day"; Tuesday as "Patriotism Day"; Wednesday as "School and Teacher Day"; Thursday as "Community Day," and Saturday as "Physical Education Day."

The governor's proclamation is at the request of the United States Bureau of Education, acting in cooperation with the National Educational Association and the American Legion, and in conformity with the action of the president of the United States in setting aside the week of November 18 to 24, 1923, to be observed as American Educational Week.

The second amended complaint filed in Maricopa county by McCord Harrison, imperial representative of the Ku Klux Klan in Arizona, in an injunction seeking to restrain the State Fair Commission from permitting the use of parimutuel machines in connection with the racing program at the coming state fair, was dismissed last week by Superior Judge Dudley W. W. Winsor. Dismissal of the complaint followed the sustaining of a demurrer filed by the defense attorneys.

"ROOM BUREAU" AT PHOENIX

For the benefit of visitors a "room bureau" will be maintained at the Phoenix chamber of commerce, Adams street, just west of Second avenue, where a list of rooms will be on file. The office will be open each day from 8 a.m. until midnight during fair week. Hotels and restaurants have been pledged not to raise rates during the fair.

MORE LAND FOR HOMESTEADERS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 8.—Approximately 15,600 acres of public lands in three western states was thrown open last Saturday for homesteading. The tracts include 12,500 acres in Lincoln county, Wyoming; 1750 acres in Routt county, Colorado; and 1300 acres in Apache county, Arizona.

STATE TO JOIN WAR ON DRUGS

A measure to place more stringent regulations on the legal use of narcotics in the state in order to suppress illicit traffic in them in Arizona will be introduced at the next session of the state legislature, according to an announcement made recently by Gov. G. W. P. Hunt in Phoenix.

RATE HEARING ANNOUNCED

Washington, Nov. 8.—Interstate Commerce Commission hearings on railroad rates and grain products will be held at Spokane, Wash., December 2; San Francisco, December 11, and Phoenix, December 18.

Not Yet

"Well! What are you stopping for?" asked the young man as the taxi came to a halt in the middle of the street. "I heard the lady say 'Stop!'" said the driver.

"Well, she wasn't talking to you," exchanged.

RATE HEARING ANNOUNCED

Washington, Nov. 8.—Interstate Commerce Commission hearings on railroad rates and grain products will be held at Spokane, Wash., December 2; San Francisco, December 11, and Phoenix, December 18.

Not Yet

"Well! What are you stopping for?" asked the young man as the taxi came to a halt in the middle of the street. "I heard the lady say 'Stop!'" said the driver.

"Well, she wasn't talking to you," exchanged.

RATE HEARING ANNOUNCED

Washington, Nov. 8.—Interstate Commerce Commission hearings on railroad rates and grain products will be held at Spokane, Wash., December 2; San Francisco, December 11, and Phoenix, December 18.

Not Yet

"Well! What are you stopping for?" asked the young man as the taxi came to a halt in the middle of the street. "I heard the lady say 'Stop!'" said the driver.

"Well, she wasn't talking to you," exchanged.

RATE HEARING ANNOUNCED

Washington, Nov. 8.—Interstate Commerce Commission hearings on railroad rates and grain products will be held at Spokane, Wash., December 2; San Francisco, December 11, and Phoenix, December 18.

Not Yet